IN THE MATTER OF THE DISCIPLINARY	:
PROCEEDINGS AGAINST	:	STIPULATION
WESLEY JUNG	:	90 ACC 044
A/K/A & D/B/A WESLEY W. JUNG, JR.	:	89 ACC 026
RESPONDENT	:	89 ACC 017

Respondent Wesley Jung, A/K/A & D/B/A Wesley W. Jung, Jr., and complainant's attorney, Henry E. Sanders, Division of Enforcement, having reached agreement for disposition of the captioned-matter, stipulate and agree as follows:

1. This Stipulation shall be submitted to the Accounting Examining Board (Board) for approval and the disposition of the matter. If the terms of the Stipulation are not acceptable to the Board, then the parties shall not be bounded by any of the Provisions of the Stipulation.
2. Respondent has been advised of his right to a public hearing on each and every allegation of the complaint, but hereby, freely and voluntarily waive his right to a hearing in this matter on the condition that all Provisions of this Stipulation be acceptable to and approved by the Board.
 - a. Respondent further agree to waive any appeal of the Board's Final Decision and Order adopting the Stipulation agreement.
3. Respondent Wesley Jung, (Jung), (DOB: 05/26/26), with addresses of P.O. Box 1041, 712 Erie Avenue, Sheboygan, Wisconsin 53081, 507 South 8th Street, Sheboygan, Wisconsin 53082, and Rt. 1, N6326 Hillside Road, Sheboygan Falls, Wisconsin 53085, was initially licensed as a certified public accountant on about September 29, 1952 (license #1743).
4. In 1971, in The Eastern District of Wisconsin, United States District Court, Jung was convicted for failing to file personal income tax returns for the years 1965-68, Exhibit "A" in pertinent part.
 - a. Jung pled guilty to one (1) count of failing to file an income tax return for the 1967 year, with the remaining counts dismissed, and Respondent was ordered to serve thirty (30) days in the Ozaukee County Jail.
5. Pursuant to the above mentioned 1971 criminal conviction, the Accounting Examining Board (Board) initiated disciplinary proceedings against Respondent (Case #71 ACC 04), which resulted in a Board decision and order on about June 30, 1971, in which the Board accepted Respondent's offer to voluntarily surrender his certificate and licenses to practice CPA for an indefinite period of time.
 - a. On about January 8, 1972, the Board reinstated Respondent's certificate and/or licenses to practice CPA in the State of Wisconsin.

6. Thereafter, on about March 5, 1981, Respondent pled guilty to two (2) misdemeanor counts of failure to file corporate income tax returns, as charged in a two (2) count indictment in violation of the Internal Revenue Code, in the United States District Court, Eastern District of Wisconsin, and accordingly, was convicted, Exhibit "A" supra.

7. Pursuant to Respondent's 1981 above enumerated conviction, by the Accounting Examining Board Final Decision and Order dated September 25, 1981, Respondent's certificate and license to practice CPA was revoked, Exhibit "A," supra.

8. Subsequently, and variously, Respondent petitioned the Board for reinstatement as a CPA. Ultimately, by letter dated June 10, 1985 to Respondent from the Board, Exhibit "B," Jung was informed that the Board voted to approve his reinstatement as a CPA. The Board advised that:

"to obtain a license to practice for the remainder of 1985, you must send a letter to the following address indicating that you wish to renew your CPA license, giving your name, address and phone number, and enclosing a check for $60.00."

9. Apparently - but not positively, due to a departmental mixup, Respondent's father Wesley W. Jung, Sr., (License #0882), renewal application was submitted to Respondent, with Respondent being issued his father's license and or certificate of registration renewal; which were continually renewed until about October-November 1989, when the department received notification that Wesley W. Jung, Sr., had expired, and that apparently Respondent was practicing CPA under his deceased father's licensure or registration number. See Exhibit "C," Original Death Certificate of Wesley W. Jung, Sr., with a date of death of April 30, 1986.

10. When Respondent attempted to renew under Wesley Jung, Sr., CPA license number in February 1990, Exhibits "D-D1," Respondent's check and/or money order was returned to him with a letter informing him that the money was being returned because he had renewed under his father's license, and that he should contact the Accounting Examining Board to find out how to renew under his own license.

11. Thereafter, Respondent never contacted the Department regarding relicensure and Wesley Jung, Sr., (deceased) licensure status is reflected in Departmental records as having expired on December 31, 1989. Respondent Wesley Jung, has not been properly licensed since about January 1, 1978, and has not been licensed under any circumstances as a CPA since December 31, 1989.

12. Respondent Jung has consistently been advertised and held out as a Certified Public Accountant in the Sheboygan/Sheboygan Falls White/Yellow Pages Telephone Directory since 1988 through the present (August 1992).

13. Preceding December 31, 1989 - when Wesley W. Jung, Sr., license expired and before Respondent Jung attempted renewal, supra, on about April 11, 1989, a two (2) count criminal Indictment was filed against Respondent by the U.S. Attorney's Office, charging him with filing false corporation income tax returns, Exhibits "E-E1," in case number 89 CR 58.

14. Thereafter, Respondent and a United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Wisconsin, entered into a plea agreement, Exhibit "E2," in which Respondent agreed to plead guilty to count 1 of the indictment, with count 2 of the indictment being dismissed.

15. On about September 26, 1989, in case number 89 CR 58, in the United States Federal District Court, Eastern District of Wisconsin, the Honorable Judge Thomas J. Curran presiding, the judge rendered a Judgment in a Criminal Case, Exhibit "E3," finding Respondent guilty pursuant to his plea of guilty to one (1) count of filing false corporate income tax returns in violation of Title 26, U.S.C. sec. 7206(1), as charged in court 1 of the indictment.

16. By virtue of the acts and conviction enumerated supra in the Federal indictment, plea agreement, and Judgment in a criminal case, Respondent has engaged in acts discreditable to the profession contrary to sec. ACCY 1.401(2)(b), (bm), Wis. Adm. Code, convictions of crimes substantially relating to the practice of accounting, and failing to notify the Board in relating to the practice of accounting, and failing to notify the Board in writing or otherwise within sixty (60) day after being convicted of a crime.

17. By advertising and holding himself out as a CPA since at least February 1990, when he was informed that he was licensed under his father's license number, up to the present, Respondent has violated sec. 442.03(1), Stats., license required.

18. Based upon the above and in settlement of this matter, Respondent Jung hereby consents, accepts and agrees to voluntarily surrender his Certificate to practice as a Certified Public Accountant.

19. Respondent is to surrender his certificate to the Department along with an executed copy of this Stipulation, with the understanding that the formal surrender will take effect on the date of signing by the Board or Board designee, a Final Decision and Order adopting the Stipulation agreement.

20. Respondent agrees that this Stipulation agreement may be incorporated into the Board's Final Decision and Order adopting the Stipulation agreement.

21. Respondent and Complainant's attorney agree that Complainant Attorney Sanders may appear at any closed-deliberative meeting of this Board with respect to this Stipulation, but that appearance is limited solely to clarification, justification, and to statements of the Stipulation and for no other purpose.

STATE OF WISCONSIN
BEFORE THE ACCOUNTING EXAMINING BOARD

IN THE MATTER OF DISCIPLINARY :
PROCEEDINGS AGAINST :

WESLEY JUNG, JR., :
RESPONDENT :

PROPOSED DECISION

The parties to this proceeding for the purposes of Wis. Stats. sec. 227.16 are:

Wesley Jung, Jr.
712 Erie Avenue
Sheboygan, Wisconsin 53081

Accounting Examining Board
1400 East Washington Avenue, Room 290
P. O. Box 8936
Madison, Wisconsin 53708

A Notice of Hearing and Complaint were filed in the above-captioned matter on May 12, 1981. No Answer was filed by, or on behalf of, the respondent, Wesley Jung, Jr.

A hearing was held on July 29, 1981 commencing at 9:30 a.m. in Room 291, 1400 East Washington Avenue, Madison, Wisconsin. Appearing for the complainant was Attorney Michael J. Berndt, Department of Regulation and Licensing, Division of Enforcement. The respondent was not present nor was anyone present representing him.

Based upon the evidence in the record and the Complaint filed herein, the Hearing Examiner recommends that the Accounting Examining Board adopt as its final decision the following Findings of Fact, Conclusion of Law, and Order..

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Wesley Jung, Jr. (Jung), at all times relevant to this proceeding held a certificate as a certified public accountant, #1743, which was issued on September 29, 1952.

2. Jung's last reported address to the Accounting Examining Board is 712 Erie Avenue, Sheboygan, Wisconsin 53081.

3. Service of the Notice of Hearing and Complaint in this matter was made on Jung by certified mail at 712 Erie Avenue, Sheboygan, Wisconsin 53081, on May 29, 1981. No Answer to the Complaint was filed by Jung.

4. On March 5, 1981, Jung was convicted in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin, pursuant to a plea of guilty, upon two (2) misdemeanor counts of failure to file corporate income tax returns, as charged in a two (2) count Indictment, in violation of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. s. 7203.

SEP 23 1981

5. The Indictment charged that during the fiscal years ending August 31, 1976 and August 31, 1977, Jung was the Corporate Vice-President of Vandertie Cold Storage, Inc., a corporation not expressly exempt from tax, with its principle place of business at Green Bay, Wisconsin, and by reason of such facts Jung was required by law, after the close of each fiscal year and on or before November 15th of that year, for and on behalf of the corporation to make an income tax return to the Internal Revenue Service stating specifically the items of the corporation's gross income of $278,718.00 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1976, and $276,561.00 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1977, and the deductions and credits allowed by law for each year, and well-knowing all of the foregoing facts, did willfully and knowingly fail to make said returns, in violation of 26 U.S.C. s. 7203.

6. The maximum penalty for conviction for each of the counts is a fine of $10,000.00 or one year of imprisonment, or both.

7. Following conviction, Jung was placed on probation on March 5, 1981, for a period of three (3) years with the conditions that Jung obey all local, state and federal laws, that Jung comply with the rules and regulations of the probation office, and that Jung pay a fine in the amount of $3,000.00 on each of the two (2) counts for a total fine of $6,000.00.

8. The minutes of the Accounting Examining Board for the April 9, 1981 meeting reflect the fact that the board reviewed the circumstances and nature of the acts resulting in Jung's convictions, found the convictions to be professionally related and related to good moral character, and found that the convictions should be bases for bringing formal charges and subsequent board action, all pursuant to section Accy 1.401(2)(b)3. of the Wisconsin Administrative Code.

9. Jung's certificate as a certified public accountant has been previously suspended by the Accounting Examining Board upon the following facts and circumstances:

a. Jung was convicted in 1971 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin of failure to file a tax return for the fiscal year 1967, thereby failing to report $126,239.00 in gross income, and was sentenced to serve 30 days in jail and pay a fine of $2,000.00;

b. Following conviction, Jung offered to surrender his certificate as a certified public accountant to the Wisconsin Accounting Examining Board and agreed to a suspension of his registration for an indefinite period of time, but not less than three months;

c. By letter dated June 30, 1971, the Accounting Examining Board accepted said certificate and suspended Jung indefinitely;

d. On January 8, 1972, the Wisconsin Accounting Examining Board voted to reinstate Jung's certificate and registration to practice as a certified public accountant, effective that date.

EXHIBIT 'A'
SEP 25 1981

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Accounting Examining Board has jurisdiction in this proceeding pursuant to Wis. Stats. sec. 442.12(1).

2. Jung did not file an Answer to the Complaint as required by Wis. Adm. Code sec. RL 2.09, and is therefore in default pursuant to Wis. Adm. Code sec. RL 2.14.

3. The circumstances of the convictions, as described in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the Findings of Fact, are substantially related to the activities engaged in by a certified public accountant.

4. The convictions of failure to file corporate income tax returns in violation of 26 U.S.C. s. 7203, as described in paragraph 4 of the Findings of Fact, constitutes a violation of Wis. Adm. Code sec. Accy 1.401(2)(b)2. and Wis. Adm. Code sec. Accy 1.401(2)(b)3., thereby authorizing the Accounting Examining Board to take disciplinary action pursuant to Wis. Stats. sec. 442.12(1).

ORDER

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the certificate to practice as a certified public accountant (#1743) of WESLEY JUNG, JR., shall be and hereby is REVOKED.

OPINION

Wesley Jung, Jr. has been previously suspended by the Accounting Examining Board for conduct substantially equivalent to that found here; that is, the failure to file tax returns.

The fact that Jung has been disciplined previously by the board for similar serious improprieties, requires that a substantial discipline be imposed. As stated by the Wisconsin Supreme Court:

"The fact that the defendant was once before disciplined for unprofessional conduct...is clearly a fact not to be disregarded in determining the appropriate disposition of the proceeding...the apprehension as to protecting the public interest is heightened by the repeater aspect of this proceeding. This is a factor that may, in fact must, be taken into consideration." State v. MacIntyre, 41 Wis. 2d 481, 484 (1969).

The prior disciplinary proceeding against Jung should have deterred him from engaging in the conduct found in this case. It did not. Accordingly, a revocation is warranted and necessary.

Dated at Madison, Wisconsin this 18th day of August, 1981.

Respectfully submitted,

Donald R. Rittel
Hearing Examiner

11 The United States of America by and through John E. Fryatt, 12 United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Wisconsin, and Stephen J.
13 Liccione, Assistant United States Attorney for said district, and the defen-14 dant, Wesley Jung, individually and by his attorney, Earl A. Charlton, pur-
15 suant to Fed.R.Crim.P. 11, hereby enter into the following plea agreement:

16 1. The defendant acknowledges that he has been charged in a 17 two-count indictment heretofore filed in this matter, which alleges violations of 18 Title 26, United States Code, § 7206(1).

19 2. As part of this agreement the defendant voluntarily agrees to 20 enter a plea of guilty to Count 1 of the indictment. The defendant also will 21 acknowledge and accept responsibility for the acts charged in Count 2 of the 22 indictment.

23 3.(a) As set forth in the indictment, Count 1 charges as follows:

24 On or about the 23rd day of April, 1983, at Sheboygan, in the State

3 ny for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982, that was made under the
4 penalties of perjury and was filed with the Internal Revenue Service, which
5 said corporate income tax return he did not believe to be true and correct as
6 to every material matter in that the said corporate income tax return reported
7 total income in the amount of $27,480.00 whereas, he then and there well knew
8 and believed, Jung Realty Company received income from the disposition of 9 real property in addition to that heretofore stated.

10 All in violation of Title 26, United States Code, § 7206(1).

11 3.(b) As set forth in the Indictment, Count 2 charges as follows:

12 . On or about the 15th day of December, 1983, at Sheboygan, in the 13 State and Eastern District of Wisconsin,

14 WESLEY JUNG,

15 defendant herein, a resident of Sheboygan Falls, Wisconsin, did willfully make 16 and subscribe a U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return for Jung Realty Compa-
17 ny for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983, that was made under the 18 penalties of perjury and was filed with the Internal Revenue Service, which 19 said corporate income tax return he did not believe to be true and correct as
20 to every material matter in that the said corporate income tax return reported
21 total income in the amount of $6,279.00 whereas, he then and there well knew
22 and believed, Jung Realty Company received income from the disposition of 23 real property in addition to that heretofore stated.

24 All in violation of Title 26, United States Code, § 7206(1).

25 4. In executing this agreement, the defendant and his counsel 26 acknowledge and understand that the offense in Counts 1 to which the defend-

1
2 ant will enter a plea of guilty carries a maximum penalty of up to three years
3 in prison, a fine of up to $100,000, or both.

4 5. In executing this agreement, the defendant and his attorney
5 further acknowledge and understand that to establish violations of Title 26,
6 United States Code, § 7206(1) the government must prove each of the follow-
7 ing propositions beyond a reasonable doubt:

8 First, that the defendant knowingly caused a corporate
9 income tax return to be filed and that the defendant signed 10 the return;

11 Second, that the corporate tax return was false as to a 12 material matter; and

13 Third, that when the defendant caused the corporate tax 14 return to be filed and signed it he did not believe the 15 return to be true and correct as to the material matter 16 charged in the indictment.

17 6. In executing this agreement and entering a plea of guilty to 18 Count 1 of the Indictment, the defendant acknowledges that he is, in fact,
19 guilty as charged.

20 7. In entering this agreement and pleading guilty to Count 1 of the 21 Indictment, the defendant further acknowledges and understands that in so 22 doing he surrenders certain rights which include:

23 a. If defendant persisted in a plea of not guilty to the 24 charge against him, he would have the right to a public and 25 speedy trial. The trial could be either a jury trial or a trial 26 by the judge sitting without a jury. The defendant has a right to a jury trial. However, in order that the trial be conducted by the judge sitting without a jury, the defendant, the government and the judge all must agree that the trial be conducted by the judge without a jury.

b. If the trial is a jury trial, the jury would be composed of twelve laypersons selected at random. The defendant and his attorney would have a say in who the jurors would be by removing prospective jurors for cause where actual bias or other disqualification is shown, or without cause by exercising so-called peremptory challenges.

EXHIBIT "EQ"

RF	D
DEC 12 1969

2 The jury would have to agree unanimously before it could
3 return a verdict of either guilty or not guilty. The jury
4 would be instructed that defendant is presumed innocent,
5 and that it could not convict him unless, after hearing all
6 the evidence, it was persuaded of defendant's guilt beyond a 7 reasonable doubt, and that it was to consider each count of 8 the Indictment separately.

9 c. If the trial is held by the judge without a jury, the 10 judge would find the facts and determine, after hearing all 11 the evidence, and considering each count separately, whether 12 or not he was persuaded of defendant's guilt beyond a 13 reasonable doubt.

14 d. At a trial, whether by a jury or a judge, the 15 government would be required to present its witnesses and 16 other evidence against the defendant. The defendant would 17 be able to examine them. In turn, defendant could present 18 witnesses and other evidence in his own behalf. If the 19 witness for the defendant would not appear voluntarily, he 20 could require their attendance through the subpoena power 21 of the court.

22 e. At a trial, defendant would have a privilege against 23 self-incrimination so that he could decline to testify, and no
24 inference of guilt could be drawn from his refusal to testify.
25 If defendant desired to do so, he could testify in his own 26 behalf.

8. Defendant acknowledges and understands that by pleading guilty he is waiving all the rights set forth in the prior paragraph. In executing this agreement, defendant further acknowledges the fact that his attorney has explained these rights to him and the consequences of his waiver of those rights.

9. Defendant understands that the United States Attorney's Office will fully apprise the district court and the United States Probation office of the nature, scope and extent of defendant's conduct giving rise to the charges against him including all matters in aggravation and mitigation relevant to the issue of sentencing.

10. In executing this agreement, the defendant acknowledges and understands that pending review of the presentence report to be completed by the Probation Department, the United States Attorney reserves the right to comment at sentencing with respect to defendant's conduct giving rise to the charge, including the right to make a specific recommendation as to the type and quantum of sentence to be imposed by the court. The United States Attorney reserves the right to be heard with respect to any post-sentence motions and/or requests including but not necessarily limited to any Rule 35 motion for a reduction of sentence.

11. Defendant further acknowledges and understands that the government reserves the right to correct factual misstatements, if any, made at the time of sentencing.

12. The defendant further acknowledges and understands that the sentencing judge is neither a party to nor bound by this agreement and may impose any sentence authorized by law and at sentence is free to impose the maximum penalties set forth in paragraph 4 above; defendant further acknowledges and understands that he may not move to withdraw his guilty pleas solely as a result of the sentence imposed by the court.

13. In executing this agreement, defendant and his attorney acknowledge that no threats, promises, representations or other inducements have been made, nor agreements reached, other than those set forth in this agreement to induce the defendant to plead guilty to the charge set forth in Count 1 of the Indictment.

14. The defendant acknowledges and understands that this plea agreement shall be filed and become part of the record in this case.

(Notice of Rights for Rehearing or Judicial Review, the times allowed for each, and the identification of the party to be named as respondent)

The following notice is served on you as part of the final decision:

1. Rehearing.

Any person aggrieved by this order may petition for a rehearing within 20 days of the service of this decision, as provided in section 227.49 of the Wisconsin Statutes, a copy of which is attached. The 20 day period commences the day after personal service or mailing of this decision. (The date of mailing of this decision is shown below.) A petition for rehearing is not a prerequisite for appeal directly to circuit court through a petition for judicial review.

2. Judicial Review.

Any person aggrieved by this decision has a right to petition for judicial review of this decision as provided in section 227.53 of the Wisconsin Statutes, a copy of which is attached. The petition should be filed in circuit court and served upon the State of Wisconsin Accounting Examining Board within 30 days of service of this decision if there has been no petition for rehearing, or within 30 days of service of the order finally disposing of the petition for rehearing, or within 30 days after the final disposition by operation of law of any petition for rehearing.

The 30 day period commences the day after personal service or mailing of the decision or order, or the day after the final disposition by operation of the law of any petition for rehearing. (The date of mailing of this decision is shown below.) A petition for judicial review should be served upon, and name as the respondent, the following: the State of Wisconsin Accounting Examining Board.

The date of mailing of this decision is February, 5, 1993.

227.49 Petitions for rehearing in contested cases. (1) A petition for rehearing shall not be a prerequisite for appeal or review. Any person aggrieved by a final order may, within 20 days after service of the order, file a written petition for rehearing which shall specify in detail the grounds for the relief sought and supporting authorities. An agency may order a rehearing on its own motion within 20 days after service of a final order. This subsection does not apply to s. 17.025 (3) (e). No agency is required to conduct more than one rehearing based on a petition for rehearing filed under this subsection in any contested case.

(2) The filing of a petition for rehearing shall not suspend or delay the effective date of the order, and the order shall take effect on the date fixed by the agency and shall continue in effect unless the petition is granted or until the order is superseded, modified, or set aside as provided by law.

(3) Rehearing will be granted only on the basis of:

(a) Some material error of law.

(b) Some material error of fact.

(c) The discovery of new evidence sufficiently strong to reverse or modify the order, and which could not have been previously discovered by due diligence.

(4) Copies of petitions for rehearing shall be served on all parties of record. Parties may file replies to the petition.

(5) The agency may order a rehearing or enter an order with reference to the petition without a hearing, and shall dispose of the petition within 30 days after it is filed. If the agency does not enter an order disposing of the petition within the 30-day period, the petition shall be deemed to have been denied as of the expiration of the 30-day period.

(6) Upon granting a rehearing, the agency shall set the matter for further proceedings as soon as practicable. Proceedings upon rehearing shall conform as nearly may be to the proceedings in an original hearing except as the agency may otherwise direct. If in the agency's judgment, after such rehearing it appears that the original decision, order or determination is in any respect unlawful or unreasonable, the agency may reverse, change, modify or suspend the same accordingly. Any decision, order or determination made after such rehearing reversing, changing, modifying or suspending the original determination shall have the same force and effect as an original decision, order or determination.

227.52 Judicial review; decisions reviewable. Administrative decisions which adversely affect the substantial interests of any person, whether by action or inaction, whether affirmative or negative in form, are subject to review as provided in this chapter, except for the decisions of the department of revenue other than decisions relating to alcohol beverage permits issued under ch. 125, decisions of the department of employe trust funds, the commissioner of banking, the commissioner of credit unions, the commissioner of savings and loan, the board of state canvassers and those decisions of the department of industry, labor and human relations which are subject to review, prior to any judicial review, by the labor and industry review commission, and except as otherwise provided by law.

227.53 Parties and proceedings for review. (1) Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, any person aggrieved by a decision specified in s. 227.52 shall be entitled to judicial review thereof as provided in this chapter.

(a) 1. Proceedings for review shall be instituted by serving a petition therefor personally or by certified mail upon the agency or one of its officials, and filing the petition in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for the county where the judicial review proceedings are to be held. If the agency whose decision is sought to be reviewed is the tax appeals commission, the banking review board or the consumer credit review board, the banking review board or the savings and loan review board, the petition shall be served upon both the agency whose decision is sought to be reviewed and the corresponding named respondent, as specified under par. (b) 1 to 4.

2. Unless a rehearing is requested under s. 227.49, petitions for review under this paragraph shall be served and filed within 30 days after the service of the decision of the agency upon all parties under s. 227.48. If a rehearing is requested under s. 227.49, any party desiring judicial review shall serve and file a petition for review within 30 days after service of the order finally disposing of the application for rehearing, or within 30 days after the final disposition by operation of law of any such application for rehearing. The 30-day period for serving and filing a petition under this paragraph commences on the day after personal service or mailing of the decision by the agency.

3. If the petitioner is a resident, the proceedings shall be held in the circuit court for the county where the petitioner resides, except that if the petitioner is an agency, the proceedings shall be in the circuit court for the county where the respondent resides and except as provided in ss. 77.59 (6) (b), 182.70 (6) and 182.71 (5) (g). The proceedings shall be in the circuit court for Dane county if the petitioner is a nonresident. If all parties stipulate and the court to which the parties desire to transfer the proceedings agrees, the proceedings may be held in the county designated by the parties. If 2 or more petitions for review of the same decision are filed in different counties, the circuit judge for the county in which a petition for review of the decision was first filed shall determine the venue for judicial review of the decision, and shall order transfer or consolidation where appropriate.

(b) The petition shall state the nature of the petitioner's interest, the facts showing that petitioner is a person aggrieved by the decision, and the grounds specified in s. 227.57 upon which petitioner contends that the decision should be reversed or modified. The petition may be amended, by leave of court, though the time for serving the same has expired. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the person serving it as petitioner and the name of the agency whose decision is sought to be reviewed as respondent, except that in petitions for review of decisions of the following agencies, the latter agency specified shall be the named respondent:

1. The tax appeals commission, the department of revenue

2. The banking review board or the consumer credit review board, the commissioner of banking.

3. The credit union review board, the commissioner of credit unions.

4. The savings and loan review board, the commissioner of savings and loan, except if the petitioner is the commissioner of savings and loan, the prevailing parties before the savings and loan review board shall be the named respondents.

(c) A copy of the petition shall be served personally or by certified mail or, when service is timely admitted in writing, by first class mail, not later than 30 days after the institution of the proceeding, upon each party who appeared before the agency in the proceeding in which the decision sought to be reviewed was made or upon the party's attorney of record.
