IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to s. 440.22, Wis. Stats., the cost of this proceeding shall be assessed against respondent, and shall be payable to the Department of Regulation and Licensing.

This order is effective on the date on which it is signed by a designee of the Board of Nursing.

OPINION

This matter was commenced by the filing of a Notice of Hearing and Complaint on March 27, 1997. A hearing was held on April 23, 1997. Atty. James W. Harris appeared on behalf of the Department of Regulation and Licensing, Division of Enforcement. The respondent, Margery J. Corrick, did not file an Answer to the Complaint and did not appear at the hearing.

Corinne Kleinhans, R.N., testified at the hearing at the request of the Division of Enforcement. Nurse Kleinhans is the Director of Nursing at the Beverly Terrace Nursing Home. She testified that in June 1996, when she attempted to administer Vicodin to Resident EP for pain she discovered that there was none available on the premises for the resident. She contacted Busse Pharmacy and was told that two, 30-day blister packs had been sent to the nursing home for Resident EP since her admission in January, 1996. According to Nurse Kleinhans, the medication administration record for Resident EP indicates that the resident had been given only 3 Vicodin pills during the time period between January, 1996 and June, 1996. Exhibit #2.

Nurse Kleinhans further testified in reference to the policy of the nursing home, that when medications for residents are low nurses are authorized to reorder medications so that there is a constant supply available for the residents.

Nurse Kleinhans said that prior to learning that the medication for Resident EP was missing, she was aware that there was a problem at the nursing home with medication which was unaccounted for or missing. As a result, she and the nursing home administrator at Beverly Terrace conducted an investigation to determine the source of the problem. On July 3, 1996, Nurse Kleinhans, along with the nursing home administrator, interviewed each nurse individually about the missing medication; they informed the nurses of the nursing home's policy, in reference to its willingness to help the individual if the individual came forward, and they requested that the nurses take a voluntary drug (urine) test.

In reference to Ms. Corrick, Nurse Kleinhans testified that she asked her if she knew anything and if she would take a voluntary drug test. Nurse Kleinhans stated that Ms. Corrick did not initially offer any information; appeared very fidgety; did not make eye contact and did not verbally respond when asked if she would take a drug test. Later that same day, Nurse Kleinhans spoke with Ms. Corrick again, at which time Ms. Corrick admitted that she reordered Vicodin for Resident EP and that the handwriting on the reorder form was her handwriting. Nurse Kleinhans asked Ms. Corrick why she had reordered the Vicodin in light of the fact that the medication had only been administered to the resident 3 times since January. Ms. Corrick did not have an answer, but admitted that she had taken two 30-day blister packs of Vicodin, one from Resident EP and one from another resident. Ms. Corrick told Nurse Kleinhans, that the two blister packs of Vicodin were the only ones she had taken and that she "did not have a problem". Exhibit #1.

Finally, the nursing home administrator at Beverly Terrace Nursing Home also testified at the hearing. He confirmed that Ms. Corrick admitted that she had taken two 30-day blister packs of Vicodin, one which had been reordered for Resident EP and one pack from another resident.

The evidence presented in this case establishes that the respondent violated numerous provisions of ch. 441, Stats., and ch. N 7 Wis. Adm. Code. Having found that Ms. Corrick violated laws governing the practice of professional nursing in Wisconsin, a determination must be made regarding whether discipline should be imposed, and if so, what discipline is appropriate.

The Board of Nursing is authorized under s. 441.07 (1), Stats., to reprimand a registered nurse or limit, suspend or revoke the license of a registered nurse if it finds that the individual has violated ch. 441, Stats., or any rule adopted by the Board under the statutes.

The purposes of discipline by occupational licensing boards are to protect the public, deter other licensees from engaging in similar misconduct and to promote the rehabilitation of the licensee. State v. Aldrich, 71 Wis. 2d 206 (1976). Punishment of the licensee is not a proper consideration. State v. McIntyre, 41 Wis. 2d 481 (1969).

The Administrative Law Judge recommends that Ms. Corrick's license to practice as a registered nurse be suspended for an indefinite period of time. This measure is designed primarily to assure protection of the public and to deter other licensees from engaging in similar misconduct. Revocation of Ms. Corrick's license is not being recommended because when confronted by her employer she eventually admitted that she diverted the Vicodin pills; except for the two 30-pill blister packs the evidence does not establish that she diverted any other drugs, and the evidence does not establish that she self-administered the Vicodin pills or that she is drug dependent.

Public trust is essential to the practice of professional nursing. Ms. Corrick has shown by her conduct that she is dishonest and untrustworthy and that she is incapable of practicing as a registered nurse in a manner which safeguards the interests of the public. Ms. Corrick may petition the Board for a stay of the suspension of her license, subject to submission of documentation satisfactory to the Board of her fitness to safely and competently resume practice as a registered nurse.

Based upon the record herein, the Administrative Law Judge recommends that the Board of Nursing adopt as its final decision in this matter, the proposed Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order as set forth herein.

Dated at Madison, Wisconsin this 11th day of July, 1997

Respectfully submitted,

Ruby Jefferson-Moore
Administrative Law Judge
