The parties in this matter agree to the terms and conditions of the attached stipulation as the final disposition of this matter, subject to the approval of the Real Estate Board ("Board"). The Board has reviewed the stipulation and considers it acceptable.

Accordingly, the Board adopts the attached stipulation and makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Brenco Properties Limited., ("Brenco"), 721 Highway 14 East, Richland Center, Wisconsin 53581, is and was at all times relevant to the facts set forth herein, a real estate corporation licensed to practice as a real estate broker in the State of Wisconsin pursuant to license #833281, originally granted to it on November 5, 1985. Brenco conducts business under the trade name of "Century 21 Complete Service Realty".

2. Paul J. Breininger ("P. Breininger"), 721 Highway 14 East, Richland Center, Wisconsin 53581, is and was at all times relevant to the facts set forth herein, a real estate broker licensed to practice as a real estate broker in the State of Wisconsin pursuant to license #35365, originally granted to him on August 26, 1985. P. Breininger is the president of Brenco.

3. Christene M. Breininger ("C. Breininger"), 721 Highway 14 East, Richland Center, Wisconsin 53581, is and was at all times relevant to the facts set forth herein, a real estate broker licensed to practice as a real estate broker in the State of Wisconsin pursuant to license #39383, originally granted to her on December 23, 1986. C. Breininger is an independent contractor affiliated with Brenco.

4. Gary L. Kershner ("Kershner"), R.R. 4, Box 85, Richland Center, Wisconsin 53581, is and was at all times relevant to the facts set forth herein, a real estate broker licensed to practice as a real estate broker in the State of Wisconsin pursuant to license #44621, originally granted to him on January 1, 1991. Prior to being licensed as a real estate broker, Kershner was licensed as a real estate salesperson in Wisconsin pursuant to license #25539, originally granted on February 13, 1986. Kershner is an independent contractor affiliated with Brenco.

5. C. Breininger and Kershner were supervised, at all times relevant hereto, by P. Breininger.

6. On or about August 29, 1995, Kershner, drafted a WB-1 residential listing contract-exclusive right to sell for the signature of the seller Alta May Cockroft, wherein Ms. Cockroft listed her residential property located in the township of Orion, County of Richland, Wisconsin, for sale through the Brenco firm. Kershner signed as the agent for Brenco,

7. The listing price of the Cockroft home was $42,900.00, with the selling commission to be 7% of the selling price.

8. On or about September 2, 1995, C. Breininger, acting as a seller's broker, drafted a WB-11 residential offer to purchase wherein the buyers Arthur L. Shrader and Melinda S. Shrader offered to purchase the Cockroft property for the price of $42,900.00. A copy of the WB-11 residential offer to purchase signed by the Shraders and accepted by Cockroft is attached to this document as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by this reference.

9. The addendum to this offer is not a form approved by the Department of Regulation and Licensing and does not contain the name of the drafter thereon.

10. The terms of the inspection contingency contained in the approved offer form materially conflict with the terms of the inspection contingency in the nonapproved addendum form.

11. The terms of the offer included an inspection contingency for the well and septic system. An addendum to the offer, prepared by C. Breininger, states "Buyer shall waive this contingency within 20 days of acceptance or this offer shall be null and void and all earnest money returned to buyer.". Acceptance was accomplished on September 5, 1995. The inspection contingency and notice regarding the septic system and well were to be completed by September 25, 1995.

12. None of the Respondents prepared a written notice or amendment to the contract which waived the 20-day inspection contingency or gave notice to the seller that the inspection report was or was not satisfied.

13. The purchase contract became "null and void" on September 26, 1995 and no new purchase contract was drafted to renew or clarify the agreement of the parties. Ms. Cockroft was not informed by any of the Respondents of the void status of the contract and the earnest money was not returned to the buyers by the Respondents.

14. On or about October 9, 1995, the septic system was inspected by a licensed plumber and found to be in working condition.

15. On October 11, 1995 P. Breininger represented to Cockroft that the septic system was failing and that she needed to agree to a reduction in purchase price of $3,000.00 or the buyers would not go through with the transaction.

16. On or about October 15, 1995, C. Breininger drafted an amendment to contract of sale wherein the purchase price was changed from $42,900.00 to $39,900.00 and the following language was set forth: "Buyer is aware that the current septic system is failing and accepts the system 'as is' with no expressed or implied warranties." This amendment to contract of sale was to have been signed on or before October 15, 1995. The amendment, which is attached hereto as Exhibit B and incorporated herein by this reference, states further: "This amendment is binding upon seller and buyer only if a copy of the accepted amendment is delivered to the party offering the amendment on or before October 15, 1995 (time is of the essence)."

17. The amendment was not signed by the Shraders until October 16, 1995.

18. Upon realizing that the amendment to the contract of sale had not been signed by the Shraders within the time allowed, C. Breininger changed the October 15, 1995 date to October 16, 1995. This change was without the consent or knowledge of Cockroft.

19. Ms. Cockroft did not receive a copy of the signed amendment to contract of sale which showed the changed date until closing, which occurred on October 20, 1995.

20. Cockroft was instructed by both C. Breininger and P. Breininger to make a check in the amount of $3,000.00 payable to Century 21 Realty Services.

21. Cockroft prepared a check in the amount of $3,000.00 payable to the Century 21 real estate trust account, in response to the Breingers' request.

22. Upon observing that the $3,000.00 check was made payable to the Brenco real estate trust account, P. Breinger instructed Cockroft to reissue a check payable only to Century 21 and to not state that it was payable to the broker's trust account.

23. Upon P. Breinger's instruction, Cockroft reissued the $3,000.00 check using check #2478 and gave it to P. Breinger. The reissued check was made payable to "Century 21". A copy of this check is attached as Exhibit C and hereby incorporated herein by this reference.

24. P. Breinger deposited the $3,000.00 personal check of Cockroft into his corporation's business operating account and reissued a check out of that operating account to the Shraders.

25. The $3,000.00 provided by Cockroft to P. Breinger falls within the definition of real estate trust funds under sec. RL 18.01(6) of the Wisconsin Administrative Code.

26. The buyers, the Shraders, obtained mortgage financing for the purchase of the Cockroft home from Westby Co-op Credit Union, 1591 U.S. Highway 14 East, Richland Center, Wisconsin 53581.

27. The Respondents intentionally did not inform the Westby Co-op Credit Union of the $3,000.00 side agreement or the reduction in purchase price from $42,900.00 to 39,900.00.

28. The Westby Co-op Credit Union closed the transaction at its offices on October 20, 1995 and issued a U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Settlement statement for the transaction listing the purchase price as $42,900.00.

29. The Wisconsin real estate transfer return used in the transaction reflects the purchase price as being $42,900.00.

30. Prior to the closing at the Westby Co-op Credit Union, and on October 20, 1995, which is the same day as the Westby Co-op Credit Union closing, P. Breinger met with Cockroft, presented to her a closing statement which reflected the purchase price as being $42,900.00. and received the $3,000.00 check from her.

31. The closing statement prepared by Brenco indicates a sales.commission calculated on a selling price of $39,900, however it incorrectly states the selling price as $42,900.00.

32. Brenco issued to Ms. Cockroft an Internal Revenue Service form 1099 stating falsely that the purchase price was $42,900.00.

33. Ms. Cockroft complained to the Division of Enforcement that she would not have agreed to the $3,000.00 reduction in purchase price if she had been timely and properly informed that the plumber's report indicated that the septic system was working properly.

MITIGATION

34. During negotiation of this stipulated FINAL DECISION AND ORDER, Respondent Paul J. Breininger voluntarily paid $3,000.00 to Ms. Cockroft. This payment was made on September 3, 1997. This voluntary effort to fully compensate Ms. Cockroft is a mitigating circumstance recognized by the Division of Enforcement and accounts for the Division recommending a reduced length of suspension of the real estate broker's license held by Paul J. Breininger. This recommendation is set forth below and is for a 45 day suspension, in addition to the other terms of the stipulated order.

Should Buyer elect to carry out this Offer despite such damage, Buyer shall be entitled to the insurance proceeds relating to the damage to the Property, plus a credit towards the purchase price equal to the amount of Seller's deductible on such policy. However, if this sale is financed by a loan contract or a mortgage to Seller, the insurance proceeds shall be held in trust for the sole purpose of restoring the Property.

PRE-CLOSING INSPECTION At a reasonable time, pre-approved by Seller or Seller's agent within 3 days before closing, Buyer shall have the right to inspect the Property to determine that there has been no significant change in the condition of the Property, except for ordinary wear and tear and changes approved by Buyer, and that any defects Seller has elected to cure have been repaired in a good and workmanlike manner.

DEFAULT

Seller and Buyer each have the legal duty to use good faith and due diligence in completing the terms and conditions of this Offer. A material failure to perform any obligation under this Offer is a default which may subject the defaulting party to liability for damages or other legal remedies.

- If Buyer defaults, Seller may:
 - (1) sue for specific performance and request the earnest money as partial payment of the purchase price, or
 - (2) terminate the Offer and have the option to (a) request the earnest money as liquidated damages, or (b) direct Broker to return the earnest money and have the option to sue for actual damages.
 - If Seller defaults, Buyer may:
 - (1) sue for specific performance, or
 - (2) terminate the Offer and request the return of the earnest money, sue for actual damages, or both.
- In addition, the Parties may seek any other remedies available in law or equity.

The Parties understand that the availability of any judicial remedy will depend upon the circumstances of the situation and the discretion of the courts. If either Party defaults, the Parties may consider the Offer or seek nonjudicial dispute resolution instead of the remedies outlined here. The Parties agree to binding arbitration. The Parties may lose the right to litigate in a court of law the disputes covered by the arbitration agreement.

NOTE: THIS IS NOT LEGAL ADVICE. A BROKER CANNOT PROVIDE LEGAL ADVICE OR OPINION CONCERNING THE LEGAL RIGHTS, OBLIGATIONS OR REMEDIES TO A DISBURSEMENT OF THE LEGAL EFFECT OF A SPECIFIC CONTRACT OR CONTRACT TERM. A BROKER SHOULD BE CONSULTED FOR LEGAL ADVICE. IF REQUIRED, BUYER'S OR SELLER'S LEGAL RIGHTS WILL BE PROTECTED AND BE FURNISHED BY BROKER TO THE DEFENDING PARTY. AGENCY AGREEMENT BY THE PARTIES' EARNEST MONEY WILL BE SUBJECT TO THIS BOTH IN LINES 15 TO 18.

EARNEST MONEY

DEFINITION Earnest money if held by a broker shall be held in the trust account of the broker drafting the Offer prior to acceptance of the Offer and in the trust account of the listing broker. Upon completion of the Offer, the earnest money shall be applied to purchase price or other consideration as provided in the Offer. If negotiations do not result in an accepted offer, the earnest money shall be promptly returned after clearance from payor's depositary in addition if earnest money is paid by check to the person who paid the earnest money. CAUTION: If someone other than Buyer makes payment of earnest money on behalf of Buyer, consider a special agreement regarding disbursement.

DISBURSEMENT The earnest money shall be disbursed according to the closing statement. If the Offer does not close, the earnest money shall be disbursed according to a written disbursement agreement signed by all Parties to the Offer. If such disbursement agreement has not been delivered to broker within 60 days after the date set for closing, broker may disburse the earnest money (1) as ordered by an attorney who has reviewed the transaction and does not represent Buyer or Seller, (2) into a court hearing a lawsuit involving the earnest money and all parties to this Offer, (3) as ordered by court order, or (4) any other disbursement required or allowed by law. Broker may retain legal services to direct disbursement per (1) or to file an interpleader action per (2) and broker may deduct from the earnest money the costs and reasonable attorneys fees not to exceed $250 prior to disbursement. Should persons other than broker hold earnest money, an escrow agreement should be drafted by the Parties or an attorney for Buyer or Seller.

LEGAL RIGHTS OF BROKER Disbursement of earnest money does not determine the legal rights of the Parties in relation to this Offer. At least 30 days prior to disbursement per (1) or (2), broker shall send Buyer and Seller notice of the disbursement by certified mail. If Buyer or Seller disagree with broker's proposed disbursement, a lawsuit may be filed to obtain a court order regarding disbursement. Small Claims Court has jurisdiction over all earnest money disputes arising out of the sale of residential property with 1-4 dwelling units and certain other court of money disputes. The Buyer and Seller should consider consulting attorneys regarding their legal rights under this Offer in case of a dispute.

Both parties agree to hold the broker harmless from any liability for good faith disbursement of earnest money in accordance with this Offer or applicable Department of Regulation and Licensing regulations concerning earnest money. See Wis. Administrative Code BR 18.01.
