SUMMARY

This is a disciplinary action by the Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board against Raymond Lawrence. Mr. Lawrence was alleged to have employed three unlicensed individuals to provide barbering or cosmetology services in his establishment, Hair Elegance. Mr. Lawrence did not respond to the complaint with a written answer, and he did not appear at the scheduled hearing. The allegations were proven by a preponderance of the evidence. Mr. Lawrence's violations constitute unprofessional conduct for the barbering and cosmetology profession, and discipline is imposed.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

A. This case was initiated by the filing of a complaint (DOE case # 97 BAC 100) with the Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board on January 20, 1998. A disciplinary proceeding (hearing) was scheduled for February 16, 1998. Notice of Hearing was prepared by the Division of Enforcement of the Department of Regulation and Licensing and sent by certified mail on January 23, 1998 to Raymond Lawrence , who received it on January 26, 1998.

B. No answer was filed by Mr. Lawrence.

C. All time limits and notice and service requirements having been met, the disciplinary proceeding was held as scheduled on February 16, 1998. Raymond Lawrence did not appear. The Barbering and Cosmetology Board was represented by attorney Steven Gloe of the Department's Division of Enforcement. Mr. Gloe moved that Mr. Lawrence be found in default under sec. RL 2.14, Wis. Admin. Code, and the motion was granted. Testimony was presented and exhibits identified by departmental investigator Dawn Kalies. The hearing was recorded; no transcript was prepared. The complaint and the testimony and exhibits entered into evidence at the hearing form the basis for this Proposed Decision.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

- I. The Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board has personal jurisdiction over Raymond Lawrence, based on his holding a credential issued by the board, and based on notice under sec. 801.04 (2), Stats.
- II. The Barbering and Cosmetology Board is the legal authority responsible for issuing and controlling credentials for barber and cosmetologist establishment licenses, under ch. 454, Stats., and it has jurisdiction over the subject-matter of a complaint alleging unprofessional conduct, under sec. 15.08(5)(c), Stats., sec. 454.15, Stats., and ch. BC 2, Wis. Admin. Code.
- III. Raymond Lawrence is in default, under sec. RL 2.14, Wis. Admin. Code, and the board may enter an order on the basis of the complaint and other evidence.
- IV. The violations in findings of fact 3, 4 and 5 above constitute unprofessional conduct, under sections BC 2.04(1), Wis. Admin. Code, and 454.15(2)(i), Stats., and discipline is appropriate, under sec. 454.15(2), Stats.

ORDER

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the barbering and cosmetology establishment license issued to Hair Elegance, 3072 N. 27th St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin, be revoked, effective on the date the final decision is signed by a member of the board.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Raymond Lawrence pay the costs of this proceeding, as authorized by sec. 440.22 (2), Stats., and sec. RL 2.18, Wis. Admin. Code.

OPINION

This is a disciplinary proceeding conducted under the authority of ch. 227, Stats. and ch. RL 2, Wis. Admin. Code. The Division of Enforcement in the Department of Regulation and Licensing filed a complaint with the Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board alleging that the respondent, Raymond Lawrence, employed three unlicensed individuals to provide barbering and cosmetology services in his establishment, Hair Elegance. The burden of proof is on the Division of Enforcement to prove the allegations of the complaint by a preponderance of the evidence. Mr. Lawrence did not file a written answer to the complaint and did not appear for the scheduled hearing. Under sec. RL 2.14, Wis. Admin. Code, Mr. Lawrence is in default and the board may proceed on the basis of the complaint and other evidence presented at hearing. I conclude that the division met its burden of proof to show that Mr. Lawrence, d/b/a Hair Elegance, violated rules promulgated by the board for its licensees, and that disciplinary action against Mr. Lawrence is appropriate.

The complaint contains sufficient uncontested facts to prove the allegations. Departmental investigator Dawn Kalies provided supplemental evidence, including the identification of photographs (exhibits 1, 2 and 3) of the unlicensed individuals named in the complaint. She further testified that she visited Hair Elegance on two occasions, once in June of 1997 and once in November of 1997, and that on both occasions, all persons providing barbering and cosmetology services in the shop were unlicensed. Also, Ms. Kalies testified that when she returned in November accompanied by police officers, she was initially unable to enter because the door was locked. Clients and persons performing barbering and cosmetology services were visible inside, and some of these exited by a back door when she began knocking. Entry was finally gained with police assistance, at which time she spoke to and identified Don Mitchell, who then disappeared after she spoke to him. Ms. Kalies testified that at least one client who was receiving chemical treatment was left alone and unattended when the person providing the service abandoned ship.

Discipline.

The purposes of professional discipline for attorneys have been set forth in Wisconsin Supreme Court Rule SCR 21.03(5), which states: "Discipline for misconduct is not intended as punishment for wrongdoing, but is for the protection of the public, the courts and the legal profession." That reasoning has been extended by regulatory agencies, including the Department of Regulation and Licensing, to disciplinary proceedings for other professions.

It is difficult to tell what discipline would have a sufficient rehabilitative effect on Mr. Lawrence, since he has not cooperated with the department or the board in the investigation and preparation of this case. Certainly in order to deter other professionals from similar misconduct, some form of serious discipline is appropriate. And given the repeated and apparently continuous nature of Hair Elegance's employment of unlicensed individuals, despite the notice provided by Ms. Kalies's first visit, removal of the establishment license appears to be the most appropriate discipline in order to ensure the protection of the public. Therefore, this order calls for revocation of the license.

Costs.

The assessment of costs against a disciplined professional is authorized by sec. 440.22(2), Wis. Stats. and sec. RL 2.18, Wis. Admin. Code. Raymond Lawrence failed to cooperate in any way with the Department in this action, and failed to appear at the hearing. His lack of cooperation and disregard for these proceedings make an order for costs appropriate.

NOTICE OF RIGHTS OF APPEAL

TO: RAYMOND LAWRENCE, d/b/a HAIR ELEGANCE

You have been issued a Final Decision and Order. For purposes of service the date of mailing of this Final Decision and Order is 4/14/98. Your rights to request a rehearing and/or judicial review are summarized below and set forth fully in the statutes reprinted on the reverse side.

A. REHEARING.

Any person aggrieved by this order may file a written petition for rehearing within 20 days after service of this order, as provided in section 227.49 of the Wisconsin Statutes. The 20 day period commences on the day of personal service or the date of mailing of this decision. The date of mailing of this Final Decision is shown above.

A petition for rehearing should name as respondent and be filed with the party identified below.

A petition for rehearing shall specify in detail the grounds for relief sought and supporting authorities. Rehearing will be granted only on the basis of some material error of law, material error of fact, or new evidence sufficiently strong to reverse or modify the Order which could not have been previously discovered by due diligence. The agency may order a rehearing or enter an order disposing of the petition without a hearing. If the agency does not enter an order disposing of the petition within 30 days of the filing of the petition, the petition shall be deemed to have been denied at the end of the 30 day period.

A petition for rehearing is not a prerequisite for judicial review.

B. JUDICIAL REVIEW.

Any person aggrieved by this decision may petition for judicial review as specified in section 227.53, Wisconsin Statutes (copy on reverse side). The petition for judicial review must be filed in circuit court where the petitioner resides, except if the petitioner is a non-resident of the state, the proceedings shall be in the circuit court for Dane County. The petition should name as the respondent the Department, Board, Examining Board, or Affiliated Credentialing Board which issued the Final Decision and Order. A copy of the petition for judicial review must also be served upon the respondent at the address listed below.

A petition for judicial review must be served personally or by certified mail on the respondent and filed with the court within 30 days after service of the Final Decision and Order if there is no petition for rehearing, or within 30 days after service of the order finally disposing of a petition for rehearing, or within 30 days after the final disposition by operation of law of any petition for rehearing. Courts have held that the right to judicial review of administrative agency decisions is dependent upon strict compliance with the requirements of sec. 227.53 (1) (a), Stats. This statute requires, among other things, that a petition for review be served upon the agency and be filed with the clerk of the circuit court within the applicable thirty day period.

The 30 day period for serving and filing a petition for judicial review commences on the day after personal service or mailing of the Final Decision and Order by the agency, or, if a petition for rehearing has been timely filed, the day after personal service or mailing of a final decision or disposition by the agency of the petition for rehearing, or the day after the final disposition by operation of the law of a petition for rehearing. The date of mailing of this Final Decision and Order is shown above.

The petition shall state the nature of the petitioner's interest, the facts showing that the petitioner is a person aggrieved by the decision, and the grounds specified in section 227.57, Wisconsin Statutes, upon which the petitioner contends that the decision should be reversed or modified. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the person serving it as Petitioner and the Respondent as described below.
