- The Reports of Decisions is designed to contain copies of all orders issued by credentialing authorities within the Department of Regulation and Licensing from November, 1998 to the present. In addition, many but not all orders for the time period between 1977 and November, 1998 are posted. Not all orders issued by a credentialing authority constitute a formal disciplinary action.

Because this data base changes constantly, the Department is not responsible for subsequent entries that update, correct or delete data. The Department is not responsible for notifying prior requesters of updates, modifications, corrections or deletions. All users have the responsibility to determine whether information obtained from this site is still accurate, current and complete.
- There may be discrepancies between the online copies and the original document. Original documents should be consulted as the definitive representation of the order's content. Copies of original orders may be obtained by mailing requests to the Department of Regulation and Licensing, PO Box 8935, Madison, WI 53708-8935. The Department charges copying fees. All requests must cite the case number, the date of the order, and respondent's name as it appears on the order.
- Reported decisions may have an appeal pending, and discipline may be stayed during the appeal. Information about the current status of a credential issued by the Department of Regulation and Licensing is shown on the Department's Web Site under "License Lookup." PROPOSED DECISION
AND ORDER
Case No. LS-9810062-RAL

Based on the authority in section 440.21(2) of the Wisconsin Statutes and chapter RL 3 of the Wisconsin Administrative Code, and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law below,

THE DEPARTMENT OF REGULATION AND LICENSING HEREBY ISSUES THE FOLLOWING SPECIAL ORDER:

Effective on the date on which this order is signed by the departmental secretary or her designee,

- the respondent, Angela Evans, is ENJOINED AND PROHIBITED from continuing to operate a barbering or cosmetology establishment, unless and until she obtains a barbering or cosmetology establishment license under chapter 454, Stats.

ANY VIOLATION OF THIS SPECIAL ORDER MAY RESULT
IN A FORFEITURE OF UP TO $10,000 FOR EACH OFFENSE,
WITH EACH DAY OF CONTINUED VIOLATION
CONSTITUTING A SEPARATE OFFENSE.

PARTIES

The parties to this action under section 227.44 of the Wisconsin Statutes and chapter RL 3 of the Wisconsin Administrative Code, and for purposes of review under sec. 227.53, Stats., are:

Complainant: Division of Enforcement
Department of Regulation and Licensing
1400 East Washington Ave.
Madison, WI 53703

Respondent: Angela Evans
1809 Main Street
Cross Plains, WI 53528

Regulatory Authority: Department of Regulation and Licensing
1400 East Washington Ave.
Madison, WI 53703

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

- A. On October 5, 1998, the complainant, the Division of Enforcement in the Department of Regulation and Licensing, filed a petition for an administrative injunction. A hearing on the petition was scheduled for November 2, 1998. On October 5, 1998, a copy of the petition and a notice of hearing were served on the respondent by first-class mail.
- B. The notice of hearing informed Ms. Evans that she was to file a written answer to the petition within 20 days after service. She did not file an answer to the petition within the specified time limit.
- C. The hearing was held as scheduled. The respondent appeared in person. The department was represented by Attorney Steven Gloe of the Department's Division of Enforcement. The hearing was recorded. The testimony and exhibits entered into evidence at the hearing form the basis for this Proposed Decision.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The respondent, Angela Evans, does not hold a license to operate a barbering or cosmetology establishment in the State of Wisconsin.
2. From December 1997 to August 1998, Ms. Evans operated a barbering and cosmetology establishment known as Shear Delight in Cross Plains, Wisconsin.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

I. Under section 440.21, Stats., and chapter RL 3, Wis. Admin. Code, the Department of Regulation and Licensing is the legal authority responsible for enforcing laws requiring credentials issued under chapters 440 to 459, Stats. The department has jurisdiction over the subject-matter of a petition alleging that a person operated a barbering or cosmetology establishment without a credential required under chapters 440 through 459.

II. The respondent, Angela Evans, received notice of this action while she was physically present in the State of Wisconsin. The Department of Regulation and Licensing has personal jurisdiction over the respondent under section 801.04(2), Stats., and section RL 3.07, Wis. Admin. Code.

III. The respondent, Angela Evans, has operated a barbering or cosmetology establishment without an establishment license, in violation of sections BC 3.01(1) and BC 3.03 (5) of the Wisconsin Administrative Code. A special order enjoining Ms. Evans from continuing to operate an unlicensed establishment is therefore appropriate under section 440.21(2), Stats.

OPINION

This case is an action for an administrative injunction against Angela Evans, under the authority of sec. 440.21, Stats., and ch. RL 3, Wis. Admin. Code. The petition in this matter alleged that Ms. Evans engaged in activities which are reserved by statute and administrative rule to those holding a valid barbering or cosmetology establishment license, under secs. BC 3.01(1) and BC 3.03 (5), Wis. Admin. Code.

Ms Evans testified in the hearing and admitted the facts of the petition. There is no need in this opinion to weigh or discuss evidence, and no issues of fact remain. The facts establish that Angela Evans operated a barbering or cosmetology establishment without an establishment license. An administrative injunction is authorized by section 440.21(2), Stats., and chapter RL 3, Wis. Admin. Code, and it is clearly appropriate here.

Any person who violates a special order issued under section 440.21(2), Stats., may be required to forfeit up to $10,000 for each offense, under section 440.21(4), Stats., and each day of continued violation constitutes a separate offense. It should be noted that the issuance of a special order in an administrative injunction does not preclude other remedies for the respondent's violations of statutes, such as a misdemeanor prosecution by the district attorney under section 457.17, Stats.

NOTICE OF RIGHTS OF APPEAL

TO: ANGELA EVANS, d/b/a SHEAR DELIGHT

You have been issued an Order. For purposes of service the date of mailing of this Order is 11/18/98. Your rights to request a rehearing and/or judicial review are summarized below and set forth fully in the statutes reprinted on the reverse side.

A. REHEARING.

Any person aggrieved by this order may file a written petition for rehearing within 20 days after service of this order, as provided in section 227.49 of the Wisconsin Statutes. The 20 day period commences on the day of personal service or the date of mailing of this decision. The date of mailing of this Order is shown above.

A petition for rehearing should name as respondent and be filed with the party identified below.

A petition for rehearing shall specify in detail the grounds for relief sought and supporting authorities. Rehearing will be granted only on the basis of some material error of law, material error of fact, or new evidence sufficiently strong to reverse or modify the Order which could not have been previously discovered by due diligence. The agency may order a rehearing or enter an order disposing of the petition without a hearing. If the agency does not enter an order disposing of the petition within 30 days of the filing of the petition, the petition shall be deemed to have been denied at the end of the 30 day period.

A petition for rehearing is not a prerequisite for judicial review.

B. JUDICIAL REVIEW.

Any person aggrieved by this decision may petition for judicial review as specified in section 227.53, Wisconsin Statutes (copy on reverse side). The petition for judicial review must be filed in circuit court where the petitioner resides, except if the petitioner is a non-resident of the state, the proceedings shall be in the circuit court for Dane County. The petition should name as the respondent the Department, Board, Examining Board, or Affiliated Credentialing Board which issued the Order. A copy of the petition for judicial review must also be served upon the respondent at the address listed below.

A petition for judicial review must be served personally or by certified mail on the respondent and filed with the court within 30 days after service of the Order if there is no petition for rehearing, or within 30 days after service of the order finally disposing of a petition for rehearing, or within 30 days after the final disposition by operation of law of any petition for rehearing. Courts have held that the right to judicial review of administrative agency decisions is dependent upon strict compliance with the requirements of sec. 227.53 (1) (a), Stats. This statute requires, among other things, that a petition for review be served upon the agency and be filed with the clerk of the circuit court within the applicable thirty day period.

The 30 day period for serving and filing a petition for judicial review commences on the day after personal service or mailing of the Order by the agency, or, if a petition for rehearing has been timely filed, the day after personal service or mailing of a final decision or disposition by the agency of the petition for rehearing, or the day after the final disposition by operation of the law of a petition for rehearing. The date of mailing of this Order is shown above.

The petition shall state the nature of the petitioner's interest, the facts showing that the petitioner is a person aggrieved by the decision, and the grounds specified in section 227.57, Wisconsin Statutes, upon which the petitioner contends that the decision should be reversed or modified. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the person serving it as Petitioner and the Respondent as described below.
