STATE OF WISCONSIN
BEFORE THE FUNERAL DIRECTORS EXAMINING BOARD

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS AGAINST

STIPULATION
96 FDR 012

WILLIAM J. SANSOM,
SANSOM FUNERAL HOMES,
HILBERT & STOCKBRIDGE, WI.
RESPONDENTS

Respondents, William J. Sansom (Sansom), and Sansom Funeral Homes located in Hilbert & Stockbridge, Wisconsin respectively, and Complainant's attorney, Henry E. Sanders, Division of Enforcement, having reached agreement for disposition of the captioned-matter, stipulate and agree as follows:

1. This stipulation shall be submitted to the Funeral Directors Examining Board (Board) for approval and disposition of the matter. If the terms of the stipulation are not acceptable to the Board, then the parties shall not be bound by any of the provisions of this stipulation.
 - a. This stipulation is dispositive of investigative complaint # 96 FDR 012.
2. Respondents have been advised of their rights to public hearings on each and every allegation of the complaint, but hereby freely and voluntarily waive their rights to public hearings in this matter on the condition that all provisions of this stipulation be acceptable to and approved by the Board.
 - a. Respondents further agrees to waive any appeal of the Board's Final Decision and Order adopting the stipulation agreement.
3. Respondent Sansom of 100 North Military Road, Stockbridge, WI 53088, was initially licensed as a funeral director on August 5, 1993, d/b/a Sansom Funeral Homes, Hilbert & Stockbridge, Wisconsin, respectively.
4. Pursuant to sec. 440.08(2)(36)-(37), Wis. Stats., the Credential renewal date for funeral directors is (36). January 1 of each even-numbered year, and for funeral establishments, is (37). June 1 of each odd-numbered year.
5. Section 440.08(2r), Wis. Stats., Credential Renewal. Certificate concerning delinquent taxes, provides in pertinent part that . . . before granting an application to renew any credential issued under Chs. 440 to 480, the Department shall, in accordance with the procedure established under sec. 440.03(12), request the Department of Revenue to certify whether the applicant for the credential renewal is liable for delinquent taxes.

6. Section 440 08(4)(b)1-4, Denial of Credential Renewal, Wis Stats., provides:

(b) Failure to pay delinquent taxes.

1. If the department of revenue certifies, after a request from the department of regulation and licensing under sub. (2r), that an applicant for renewal is liable for delinquent taxes, the department of regulation and licensing shall deny the applicant's application for credential renewal.

2. The department of regulation and licensing shall notify an applicant for credential renewal that his or her application has been denied under subd. 1. by mailing to the holder of the credential a notice of denial that includes a statement of the facts that warrant the denial under subd. 1. and a notice that the holder may, within 30 days after the date on which the notice of denial is mailed, file a written request with the department of revenue to have the certification of tax delinquency on which the denial is based reviewed at a hearing under s. 71.91(8).

3. If the certification of tax delinquency that is the basis of a denial of a credential renewal application under subd. 1. is reviewed at a hearing under s. 71.91(8) and the department of revenue informs the department of regulation and licensing that, as a result of the hearing, the department of revenue affirmed its certification that the applicant is liable for delinquent taxes, the department of regulation and licensing shall affirm its denial under subd. 1. of the applicant's credential renewal application. A credential holder may seek judicial review under ch. 227 in the circuit court for Dane County of an affirmation by the department of regulation and licensing of a denial under subd. 1.

4. If the department of regulation and licensing denies a credential renewal application under subd. 1. or affirms the denial of a credential renewal application under subd. 3. and the applicant subsequently reapplies for renewal of his or her credential, the department of regulation and licensing shall deny the applicant's application for credential renewal unless the applicant presents a certificate issued by the department of revenue that states that the applicant is not liable for delinquent taxes.

7. On March 4, 1996, the Department received a telephone call from some unidentified person at the Wisconsin Department of Revenue (DOR), who informed the Department that Respondent Sansom owed delinquent taxes, that his license expired January 1, 1996, and that Respondent Sansom was then practicing without a funeral director credential.

a. Respondent Sansom had submitted his funeral director renewal application to the Department dated December 31, 1995, Exhibit "A" attached hereto, which application renewal was apparently granted.

8. Thereafter, Respondent's funeral establishments credentials were scheduled for renewal on June 1, 1997, and Respondent Sansom submitted his funeral establishment renewal applications to the Department, which were received June 16, 1997, Exhibit "B."

a. Respondent had entered into a July 1, 1996 repayment agreement with the DOR, Exhibit "C" attached hereto, and he and his wife salaries were also being garnished.

9 Pursuant to procedures in place. DOR informed the Department that Respondent owed and failed to pay delinquent taxes. and by letter dated July 16, 1997, Exhibit "D", to Respondent Sansom, he was notified that his funeral establishment application would be denied, unless he resolved his delinquent tax account.

10. Respondent Sansom was mailed and the Department received from DOR, a "Certificate of Delinquent Taxes" dated August 25, 1997, Exhibit "E", attached hereto, indicating that Sansom Funeral Home was liable for delinquent taxes.

11. Accordingly, by "Notice of Denial, Renewal Application: dated October 28, 1997, mailed to Respondent, he was informed that his funeral home application for renewal was denied, Exhibit "F." The Notices of Denial were received respectively, October 30, and 31, 1997, respectively, Exhibit "G."

12. Therefore, as of the October 28, 1997, effective date of the denial (Exhibit "F" supra), and the receipt of same by Respondent (Exhibit "G"), apparently, Sansom Funeral Homes renewal applications were denied, and Respondent Sansom had a current-active funeral directors license.

13. Thereafter, on or about January 30, 1998, Respondent Sansom met with DOR, paid the amount of $3,500.00 pursuant to an approved payment agreement between the parties; and renewed his funeral directors and establishment credentials (Exhibits "H"- "I") respectively. See also Exhibit "K," DOR's notification to the Department that Respondents "requirements for renewal of his professional credentials had been satisfied."

14. Respondent Sansom has, from about October 30, 1997-January 30, 1998, violated, aided or abetted the violations of secs. FD 3.02(1), (9), Wis. Adm. Code, (1) violating or aiding or abetting a violation of state . . . law substantially relating to the practice of funeral directing, (9) engaging in misleading or deceptive conduct in the conduct of business or the profession, by violating sec. 445.105(1), Wis. Stats., no person shall conduct, maintain, manage or operate a funeral establishment unless a permit for each establishment has been issued by the examining board and is conspicuously displayed in such funeral establishment.

15. Based upon the above and in settlement of this matter, Respondent Sansom hereby consents, accepts and agrees to be reprimanded, and to pay the amount of $250.00 as part assessment of costs.

16. The $250.00 part assessment of costs shall be payable by cashiers check or money order, made payable to the Department of Regulation and Licensing, and submitted at the time of execution of the stipulation, to the attention of:

Michelle Neverman
Monitor
Division of Enforcement
P.O. Box 8935
Madison, WI 53708-8935

17. As basis in mitigation for acceptance of this stipulation, the Board is advised that at all times material herein, Respondent applied for renewal of his funeral director's and two (2) establishment credentials in generally a timely fashion. His funeral director's credential was issued in 1996, and was not effected by any tax related delinquency. However, because the Department received notices of tax delinquency during the time of the establishments-attempted renewals, the establishments renewals were placed on Hold; with Respondent being told that he could continue to operate until he received a formal "Notice of Renewal Denial" which was actually received by him October 30-31, 1997. Thusly, technically, the establishment had only been in unlicensed capacities from October 30, 1997-January 30, 1998

18. Respondent got into this tax situation, in part because, he did not have health insurance, and two (2) of his children had major dental surgeries, involving a significant amount of cash payments; he agreed to a large amount of monthly payments with DOR in January 1996, and he and his wife's incomes were garnished simultaneously.

19. Respondent and Complainant's Attorney Sanders, agree that this stipulation agreement may be incorporated into the Board's Final Decision and Order adopting the stipulation agreement.

20. Respondents further agree that Complainant's attorney and the Board's advisor assigned to the complainant, may appear at any deliberative meeting of the Board with respect to this stipulation, but these appearances will be limited solely to clarification, justification, and to statements in support of the stipulation and for no other purpose.

RE: Notice of Denial: Renewal Application

Dear Mr. Sansom:

Please take notice that Sansom Funeral Home's application for renewal of its credential as a Funeral Establishment #0780001777 has been denied.

Statement of Facts

The following facts require that Sansom Funeral Home's application for renewal be denied under s. 440.08(4)(b), Stats.

No certificate or other documentation has been received by the Department of Regulation and Licensing showing that the establishment is not liable for delinquent taxes.
4. The Department of Revenue has filed a statement with the Department of Regulation and Licensing which states that as of August 25, 1997, Sansom Funeral Home remains liable for delinquent taxes owed to the Department of Revenue. A copy of this statement is attached hereto.

NOTICE OF RIGHTS OF APPEAL

TO: WILLIAM J SANSOM

You have been issued a Final Decision and Order. For purposes of service the date of mailing of this Final Decision and Order is 5/27/98. Your rights to request a rehearing and/or judicial review are summarized below and set forth fully in the statutes reprinted on the reverse side.

A. REHEARING.

Any person aggrieved by this order may file a written petition for rehearing within 20 days after service of this order, as provided in section 227.49 of the Wisconsin Statutes. The 20 day period commences on the day of personal service or the date of mailing of this decision. The date of mailing of this Final Decision is shown above.

A petition for rehearing should name as respondent and be filed with the party identified below.

A petition for rehearing shall specify in detail the grounds for relief sought and supporting authorities. Rehearing will be granted only on the basis of some material error of law, material error of fact, or new evidence sufficiently strong to reverse or modify the Order which could not have been previously discovered by due diligence. The agency may order a rehearing or enter an order disposing of the petition without a hearing. If the agency does not enter an order disposing of the petition within 30 days of the filing of the petition, the petition shall be deemed to have been denied at the end of the 30 day period.

A petition for rehearing is not a prerequisite for judicial review.

B. JUDICIAL REVIEW.

Any person aggrieved by this decision may petition for judicial review as specified in section 227.53, Wisconsin Statutes (copy on reverse side). The petition for judicial review must be filed in circuit court where the petitioner resides, except if the petitioner is a non-resident of the state, the proceedings shall be in the circuit court for Dane County. The petition should name as the respondent the Department, Board, Examining Board, or Affiliated Credentialing Board which issued the Final Decision and Order. A copy of the petition for judicial review must also be served upon the respondent at the address listed below.

A petition for judicial review must be served personally or by certified mail on the respondent and filed with the court within 30 days after service of the Final Decision and Order if there is no petition for rehearing, or within 30 days after service of the order finally disposing of a petition for rehearing, or within 30 days after the final disposition by operation of law of any petition for rehearing. Courts have held that the right to judicial review of administrative agency decisions is dependent upon strict compliance with the requirements of sec. 227.53 (1) (a), Stats. This statute requires, among other things, that a petition for review be served upon the agency and be filed with the clerk of the circuit court within the applicable thirty day period.

The 30 day period for serving and filing a petition for judicial review commences on the day after personal service or mailing of the Final Decision and Order by the agency, or, if a petition for rehearing has been timely filed, the day after personal service or mailing of a final decision or disposition by the agency of the petition for rehearing, or the day after the final disposition by operation of the law of a petition for rehearing. The date of mailing of this Final Decision and Order is shown above.

The petition shall state the nature of the petitioner's interest, the facts showing that the petitioner is a person aggrieved by the decision, and the grounds specified in section 227.57, Wisconsin Statutes, upon which the petitioner contends that the decision should be reversed or modified. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the person serving it as Petitioner and the Respondent as described below.
