Wisconsin Department of Regulation & Licensing Access to the Public Records of the Reports of Decisions

This Reports of Decisions document was retrieved from the Wisconsin Department of Regulation & Licensing website. These records are open to public view under Wisconsin's Open Records law, sections 19.31-19.39 Wisconsin Statutes.

Please read this agreement prior to viewing the Decision:

- The Reports of Decisions is designed to contain copies of all orders issued by credentialing authorities within the Department of Regulation and Licensing from November, 1998 to the present. In addition, many but not all orders for the time period between 1977 and November, 1998 are posted. Not all orders issued by a credentialing authority constitute a formal disciplinary action.
- Reports of Decisions contains information as it exists at a specific point in time in the Department of Regulation and Licensing data base. Because this data base changes constantly, the Department is not responsible for subsequent entries that update, correct or delete data. The Department is not responsible for notifying prior requesters of updates, modifications, corrections or deletions. All users have the responsibility to determine whether information obtained from this site is still accurate, current and complete.
- There may be discrepancies between the online copies and the original document. Original documents should be consulted as the definitive representation of the order's content. Copies of original orders may be obtained by mailing requests to the Department of Regulation and Licensing, PO Box 8935, Madison, WI 53708-8935. The Department charges copying fees. All requests must cite the case number, the date of the order, and respondent's name as it appears on the order.
- Reported decisions may have an appeal pending, and discipline may be stayed during the appeal. Information about the current status of a credential issued by the Department of Regulation and Licensing is shown on the Department's Web Site under "License Lookup." The status of an appeal may be found on court access websites at: <http://ccap.courts.state.wi.us/InternetCourtAccess> and <http://www.courts.state.wi.us/wscca>.
- Records not open to public inspection by statute are not contained on this website.

By viewing this document, you have read the above and agree to the use of the Reports of Decisions subject to the above terms, and that you understand the limitations of this on-line database.

STATE OF WISCONSIN
BEFORE THE BOARD OF NURSING

IN THE MATTER OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS AGAINST

ANGELA M. HANAMAN, RN,

ORDER DENYING STAY

Respondent

On March 30, 2000, the Board of Nursing issued its Final Decision and Order in the above-captioned matter. By the terms of the board's order, respondent's license to practice as a registered nurse in Wisconsin was suspended for an indefinite period, with provision for successive three-month stays of the suspension conditioned upon compliance with certain conditions and limitations on the license. Among these were that respondent participate in a recognized program for the treatment of chemical dependency, that she participate in psychotherapy a minimum of once per week, and that she participate in program of random witnessed monitoring for controlled substances and alcohol in her blood or urine on a frequency of not less than once per week.

On September 1, Ms. Hanaman appeared before the board in support of her request for a further three month stay of the suspension of her license. The board on that date denied the stay and specified that Ms. could make a further request for a stay to be considered by the based upon satisfactory evidence that Ms. Hanaman has been fully compliant with the board's March 30, 2000, Order.

On January 3, 2002, Ms. Hanaman appeared in support of her further request for a stay of the suspension of her license. Based upon evidence that Ms. hanaman had failed to come into compliance with the limitations on her license, the board denied the stay by its Order dated January 19, 2002.

On March 1, 2002, the board denied Ms. Hanaman's further request for a stay of the suspension based upon her failure to submit to the minimum number of urine screens.

On April 4, 2002, the board again considered a request by Ms. Hanaman that the suspension of her license be stayed, and again the board was confronted with evidence that Ms. Hanaman is still not in compliance with the board's Order, in having failed to submit to the minimum number of urine screens. Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

ORDER

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that Ms. Hanaman's request for a stay of the suspension of her license is denied. Ms. Hanaman may not renew her petition for a stay until such time as she is able to submit satisfactory evidence of having fully complied with the terms and conditions on her license for the preceding three month period.

Dated this 12th day of April, 2002.
