Wisconsin Department of Regulation & Licensing Access to the Public Records of the Reports of Decisions

This Reports of Decisions document was retrieved from the Wisconsin Department of Regulation & Licensing website. These records are open to public view under Wisconsin's Open Records law, sections 19.31-19.39 Wisconsin Statutes.

Please read this agreement prior to viewing the Decision:

- The Reports of Decisions is designed to contain copies of all orders issued by credentialing authorities within the Department of Regulation and Licensing from November, 1998 to the present. In addition, many but not all orders for the time period between 1977 and November, 1998 are posted. Not all orders issued by a credentialing authority constitute a formal disciplinary action.
- Reports of Decisions contains information as it exists at a specific point in time in the Department of Regulation and Licensing data base. Because this data base changes constantly, the Department is not responsible for subsequent entries that update, correct or delete data. The Department is not responsible for notifying prior requesters of updates, modifications, corrections or deletions. All users have the responsibility to determine whether information obtained from this site is still accurate, current and complete.
- There may be discrepancies between the online copies and the original document. Original documents should be consulted as the definitive representation of the order's content. Copies of original orders may be obtained by mailing requests to the Department of Regulation and Licensing, PO Box 8935, Madison, WI 53708-8935. The Department charges copying fees. All requests must cite the case number, the date of the order, and respondent's name as it appears on the order.
- Reported decisions may have an appeal pending, and discipline may be stayed during the appeal. Information about the current status of a credential issued by the Department of Regulation and Licensing is shown on the Department's Web Site under "License Lookup." The status of an appeal may be found on court access websites at: <http://ccap.courts.state.wi.us/InternetCourtAccess> and <http://www.courts.state.wi.us/wscqa>.
- Records not open to public inspection by statute are not contained on this website.

By viewing this document, you have read the above and agree to the use of the Reports of Decisions subject to the above terms, and that you understand the limitations of this on-line database.

STATE OF WISCONSIN
BEFORE THE BOARD OF NURSING

IN THE MATTER OF

DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS AGAINST

JOHN JOSEPH ALLEN, RN,

ORDER DENYING STAY

Respondent

On September 1, 2000, the Board of Nursing issued its Final Decision and Order in the above-captioned matter. By the terms of the board's order, respondent's license to practice as a registered nurse in Wisconsin was suspended for an indefinite period, with provision for successive three-month stays of the suspension conditioned upon compliance with certain conditions and limitations on the license. Among these were that respondent participate in a recognized program for the treatment of chemical dependency, that he participate in psychotherapy a minimum of once each week, and that he participate in program of random witnessed monitoring for controlled substances and alcohol in his blood or urine on a frequency of not less than once per week.

On January 12, 2001, the board considered evidence that Mr. Allen had relapsed within the preceding three months, and denied a further stay by its Order dated February 6, 2001.

On April 6, 2001, the board granted Mr. Allen's request for reinstatement of the stay based upon his full compliance with the board's Order during the preceding three month period.

On July 9, 2001, the board granted Mr. Allen's request for a further three month stay of the suspension.

On August 2, 2001, the board considered evidence that, following surgery, Mr. Allen was unable to resume being drug free after his postoperative exposure to narcotics. Accordingly, the board considered itself to have no alternative but to suspend the license, and to permit petition for a further stay only upon satisfactory demonstration by Mr. Allen that he has fully complied with the board's Order during the preceding three month period.

On January 4, 2002, the board considered Mr. Allen's petition for reinstatement of the stay of suspension, Based upon irregularities in Mr. Allen's drug screens, both in terms of substances screened for and the manner in which screens are conducted, the board again has no alternative but to deny the stay. IT IS SO ORDERED. Again, Mr. Allen may petition for a further stay upon satisfactory demonstration by him that he has fully complied with the board's Order during the preceding three month period

Dated this 19th day of January 2002.
