- The Reports of Decisions is designed to contain copies of all orders issued by credentialing authorities within the Department of Regulation and Licensing from November, 1998 to the present. In addition, many but not all orders for the time period between 1977 and November, 1998 are posted. Not all orders issued by a credentialing authority constitute a formal disciplinary action.

The Department is not responsible for notifying prior requesters of updates, modifications, corrections or deletions. All users have the responsibility to determine whether information obtained from this site is still accurate, current and complete.
- There may be discrepancies between the online copies and the original document. Original documents should be consulted as the definitive representation of the order's content. Copies of original orders may be obtained by mailing requests to the Department of Regulation and Licensing, PO Box 8935, Madison, WI 53708-8935. The Department charges copying fees. All requests must cite the case number, the date of the order, and respondent's name as it appears on the order.
- Reported decisions may have an appeal pending, and discipline may be stayed during the appeal. Information about the current status of a credential issued by the Department of Regulation and Licensing is shown on the Department's Web Site under "License Lookup." The parties in this matter agree to the terms and conditions of the attached Stipulation as the final disposition of this matter, subject to the approval of the Wisconsin Real Estate Board (“Board”). The Board has reviewed this Stipulation and considers it acceptable.

Accordingly, the Board in this matter adopts the attached Stipulation and makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Eriberto Malacara (“Malacara”), date of birth 04/05/43, is licensed in the State of Wisconsin as a real estate broker having license #90-50013. This license was first granted to him on 11/04/99. Malacara’s most recent address on file with the Department of Regulation and Licensing (“Department”) is 3015 17th St., Racine, WI 53405.
2. Malacara is a member of CPAD Group, LLC, which was formed on or about June 23, 1999. The Articles of Incorporation for CPAD Group, LLC are attached as Exhibit 1, which is incorporated herein by reference.
3. Malacara is the real estate broker, President and “business representative” per sec. 452.01(3k), Wis. Stats., of CPAD Group, LLC d/b/a More Homes Realty, 1648 Douglas Ave., Racine, WI 53404. CPAD Group LLC d/b/a More Homes Realty is licensed as a real estate “business entity” per sec. 452.01(3j), Wis. Stats., having license #91-700369 which was first granted on 07/26/2000.

4. On January 1, 2003, Malacara's real estate broker's license expired and was not renewed until June 2, 2003. The Department contacted Malacara and verified that he was actively working as a real estate broker while his license was expired. Malacara erroneously believed that his license was not expired during this period. A copy of a list of commissions that Malacara was paid during the time his license was expired is attached as Exhibit 2 and is incorporated herein by reference.

COUNT II

5. In June 2000, Federico Candelaria contacted Malacara and explained that he and his family were being evicted from their home and needed a place to move to as soon as possible. Candelaria told Malacara that he was interested in finding a house for-rent-to-own. Malacara agreed to help locate a home for Candelaria and his family.

6. Malacara performed an MLS search and on or about June 20, 2000, showed Candelaria the property located at 1728 Quincy St., Racine, WI. Malacara advised Candelaria that the paper work was not completed yet, but he thought that the house would be available for Candelaria to rent-to-own or on a land contract.

7. During the time Malacara showed Candelaria the 1728 Quincy St. property, the property was listed with ReMax Realty 100, 10303 W. Oklahoma Ave., Milwaukee, WI, and was a foreclosure owned by Green Tree Mortgage Services.

8. On or about June 29, 2000, Malacara drafted a Residential Offer To Purchase for David Namowicz/CPAD Group, LLC for the Quincy St. property, which was accepted on July 12, 2000. Namowicz is also a member of CPAD Group, LLC ("CPAD Group"). A copy of the Residential Offer To Purchase is attached as Exhibit 3 and is incorporated herein by reference.

9. Candelaria had given notice to move out of his current home and was concerned about the availability of the Quincy St. property. Candelaria requested a meeting with Malacara and the owner of the property. On or about July 25, 2000, Malacara, Church, Candelaria and Candelaria's attorney met. Candelaria was told that Church had not yet closed on the property and was not interested in renting.

10. Candelaria was forced to find other accommodations.

11. At no time during these negotiations did Malacara disclose his interest in CPAD Group or complete a WB-36 Buyer Agency/Tenant Representation Agreement for Candelaria. Malacara believed he was acting as a volunteer for Candelaria and did not have to have any such agreement in writing.

12. Namowicz/CPAD Group intended to transfer its interest in the property to David A. Church, Malacara's brother-in-law. A copy of the Amendment To Offer To Purchase transferring its interest to Church on August 22, 2000 is attached as Exhibit 4 and is incorporated herein by reference.

COUNT III

13. On or about July 23, 2003, an auditor with the Department of Regulation and Licensing conducted an audit of CPAD Group's real estate trust account and bookkeeping records. During the Department's audit the auditor discovered the following violations:

- a. Journal was attempted but was not done correctly;
- b. Ledgers were not maintained;
- c. Bank reconciliations were attempted but incomplete;
- d. Trial balances were not performed;
- e. Validations were not performed;

- f. Improper disbursement of trust funds; and
- g. Failure to notify the Department of the opening of a trust account and the closing of a trust account.

These discrepancies in the real estate trust account were detailed in Form 344, which was completed by the Department auditor and signed by Malacara on July 23, 2003. A copy of Form 344 is attached as Exhibit 6 and is incorporated herein by reference. Copies of trust account checks to Verizon and Home Depot are attached as Exhibit 7, which is incorporated herein by reference.

- 14. The auditor discovered that Malacara's trust account has a shortage of $6,302.47.
- 15. The auditor also noted several properties that showed a balance in the trust account after the transaction had closed.
