- The Reports of Decisions is designed to contain copies of all orders issued by credentialing authorities within the Department of Regulation and Licensing from November, 1998 to the present. In addition, many but not all orders for the time period between 1977 and November, 1998 are posted. Not all orders issued by a credentialing authority constitute a formal disciplinary action.

The Department is not responsible for notifying prior requesters of updates, modifications, corrections or deletions. All users have the responsibility to determine whether information obtained from this site is still accurate, current and complete.
- There may be discrepancies between the online copies and the original document. Original documents should be consulted as the definitive representation of the order's content. Copies of original orders may be obtained by mailing requests to the Department of Regulation and Licensing, PO Box 8935, Madison, WI 53708-8935. The Department charges copying fees. All requests must cite the case number, the date of the order, and respondent's name as it appears on the order.
- Reported decisions may have an appeal pending, and discipline may be stayed during the appeal. Information about the current status of a credential issued by the Department of Regulation and Licensing is shown on the Department's Web Site under "License Lookup." PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The parties in this matter, Sean A. Raleigh, D.V.M., Respondent and Pamela M. Stach, Attorney for the Department of Regulation and Licensing, Division of Enforcement, agree to the terms and conditions of the attached Stipulation as the final decision of this matter, subject to the approval of the Veterinary Examining Board. The Board has reviewed the attached Stipulation and considers it acceptable.

Accordingly, the Board in this matter adopts the attached Stipulation and makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Sean A. Raleigh, D.V.M., (DOB 11/17/47) is duly licensed as a veterinarian in the state of Wisconsin under license number 3625 which was granted on November 14, 1990.
2. Respondent's most recent address on file with the Wisconsin Veterinary Examining Board is 791 Lois Drive, Sun Prairie, Wisconsin 53590.
3. At all times relevant to this action, Respondent was working as a veterinarian at Sun Prairie Petcare Clinic, 1512 North Bristol Street, Sun Prairie, Wisconsin.
4. On July 9, 2001, RW presented her 11 year old dog, Lucy, to Respondent for evaluation of lumps in the dog's mammary glands. Respondent initiated diagnostics testing which supported a diagnosis of a left inguinal mammary tumor.
5. On July 30, 2001, RW's dog was returned for evaluation and Respondent diagnosed probable infected sarcoma and recommended surgery. Dr. Raleigh removed the inguinal tumor and in closing the surgical area, placed a sterile hydrosorb sponge subcutaneously in the wound to clot any capillary bleeding.

6. On August 6, 2001, Lucy was returned to Respondent with complaints of a strong odor at the surgical site, which appeared to be still draining and open.

7. Examination revealed the wound to have grown progressively worse and appeared gaping and severely inflamed. Respondent could not locate the sponge after removing several of the stitches closing the wound. Respondent determined that the wound could not be resutured and advised the owners to clean the wound with hydrogen peroxide and ensure that the Elizabethan collar was in place. He further advised the owners that the wound would only heal by secondary or tertiary healing. Respondent prescribed Prednisone to reduce the swelling and continued the Amoxicillin.

8. The dog's infection continued to worsen and she was presented for subsequent treatment at another veterinary clinic. The dog was euthanized on August 31, 2001, due to the decline from rampant infection and deteriorating neurological condition.

9. The hydrosorb sponge sutured into the surgical site was not indicated for use subcutaneous insertion.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Wisconsin Veterinary Examining Board has jurisdiction to act in this matter, pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 453.07(2), and is authorized to enter into the attached Stipulation and Order, pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 227.44(5).

2. The conduct set forth above, constitutes a violation of Wisconsin Administrative Code § VE 7.06(1).
