2. The Department of Regulation and Licensing denied this application on February 4, 2005.
3. Mr. Purvis requested a hearing on the denial of his application for a license within 45 days of receiving the denial.
4. Mr. Purvis has been convicted of the following crimes in Wisconsin:
 - Misdemeanor conviction- disorderly conduct in 1994,

- Misdemeanor conviction- disorderly conduct in 1996,
- Misdemeanor conviction- disorderly conduct; felony-escape-criminal arrest in 1997,
- Misdemeanor conviction- possession of THC in 2000,
- Felony-uttering in 2000,
- Misdemeanor – operating while revoked 2003.

In a statement provided to the Village of Pewaukee Police Department by Mr. Purvis, Mr. Purvis explained the circumstances of his conduct which resulted in the felony-uttering conviction. Mr. Purvis explained that he was asked by two acquaintances to cash a payroll check that showed Mr. Purvis as the payee and the payor as a trucking company that Mr. Purvis was not employed at. The amount of the check was approximately $4,000.00. Mr. Purvis cashed the check and gave the money to one of the acquaintances. In return Mr. Purvis received $300.00. Later, the two acquaintances encouraged Mr. Purvis to cash a second check. Mr. Purvis agreed and received $250.00 dollars. Mr. Purvis was found guilty of Felony-uttering and sentenced to one year in prison and five years probation.

5. The circumstances of the felony conviction for uttering detailed above substantially relate to the practice of a real estate appraiser.

6. Mr. Purvis is on probation until August 2006.

MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES

Mr. Purvis has had no further arrests or convictions since 2000, other than a moving vehicle violation in 2003. Since that time he has obtained custody of two children from a previous relationship and is currently living with the mother of his most recent additions to his family, twins. Mr. Purvis is anxious to provide a good home and stability for his family.

Mr. Purvis has successfully completed courses in real estate appraising at Waukesha Technical College and has also successfully completed the state examination on statutes and rules relating to real estate appraisal.

Mr Purvis provided the Department with several letters of recommendation including:

- Pastor Ray Gill Sr., "Mr. Purvis has overcome many barriers in his life and he has continually shown that adversities can become benchmarks to success. Mr. Purvis is a young man who has become very goal oriented and has strived to optimize every opportunity to further himself",
- Real estate appraiser class instructor Peter Weissenfluh, "Mr. Purvis was a serious student and was successful in class. I can vouch for his character during my experience with him",

- Mortgage lender for Alliance Mortgage Lamont Sargent, "He's a soft spoken individual, and very dedicated to his family, friends and job. He's a hard working person who does not except little effort, [sic] and always putting forth the extra effort, not to only benefit himself, but to benefit others around him",
- President/CEO of White Glove Group, Inc., London Thomas, "Carmen has been a hard working employee of the company for the past 2 (two) years. Carmen has proven himself to be dependable and committed to whatever task is before him. Carmen took it upon himself to learn many different aspects of the business, thus becoming more of an asset. Carmen is respectful, honest, trustworthy, and is always willing to go above and beyond the call of duty",
- Mortgage lender for Statewide Mortgage & Lending Corp., Lloyd Blakley, "I have known Mr. Purvis for the last fifteen plus years of my life, and he has a lot of integrity in the work that he has done for my company. I would refer Mr. Purvis's services to a number of my colleges based on the past experiences that I've had in doing business with him",
- Mr. Purvis' probation agent, Thomas Salter, "Mr. Purvis has done well on supervision and is on track to complete successfully on 08/25/2006. It is my opinion that Mr. Purvis is of a very low risk to re-offend. He appears to have learned a valuable lesson from probation, and wants to get his life on a more pro-social track. Being denied a license would be a serious setback for Mr. Purvis".
