b. Granted Respondent a license to practice medicine and surgery in the State of West Virginia, effective August 29, 2008.

c. Publicly reprimanded Respondent for providing inaccurate information to the West Virginia Board on his licensure application.

4. Respondent provided information to the Wisconsin Medical Examining Board that indicates he cooperated fully with the West Virginia Board of Medicine and in July 2008, appeared in person to explain the license application he filled out in November 2007. Respondent explained to the West Virginia Board of Medicine that the inadvertent inaccurate information filled out on his license application was corrected prior to the face-to-face board interview portion of the application process. Respondent further stated that the West Virginia Board of Medicine appeared satisfied with Respondent's explanation of the license application and granted Respondent a full, unrestricted medical license.
