PROCEDURAL HISTORY

1. On February 2, 2009, the Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board reprimanded Respondents Nga Tuyet Vu (license # 86-1431), Quy Tung (license # 85-5458), and Super Nails & Spa (license #'s 71-2081, 69-529), and ordered them to pay, jointly and severally, a forfeiture of $8,300.00. The Board further ordered Respondents to pay, jointly and severally, costs of the proceeding in the amount of $2,600.00.
2. The Board stayed $3,000.00 of the forfeiture amount. The stay was to remain in effect as long as the Respondents were not discovered to allow unlicensed manicurists activity or the use of MMA in the salon. The Order further provided that if the respondents violated the above provisions, the stay would be immediately lifted and full payment of the $3,000 would be due and payable within thirty days after such unlicensed activity or the use of MMA was discovered by the Department.
3. On September 12, 2011, Respondent Nga Tuyet Vu, known as Tina Vu, the owner of Super Nails & Spa, admitted to having allowed unlicensed personnel work in at the salon during the months of January and February 2011 in direct contravention of the Board's Order.
4. On October 11, 2011, the Division of Enforcement Department Monitor mailed notification to Respondents informing them that the stay of $3,000 of the forfeiture was no longer in effect, and demanded payment in full thereof by no later than November 10, 2011.
5. On November 3, 2011, in response to the notification and demand for payment from the Department Monitor, the Respondents submitted a request for a payment plan.

Pursuant to the Respondents' request, the Board reviewed this matter at its January 30, 2012 meeting. Based upon the record presented, the Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board makes the following:
