On July 25, 2011, the Department of Safety and Professional Services ("Department") suspended Respondent's clinical substance abuse counselor credential (#13092-132). The suspension was to continue until Respondent submits proof that he completed continuing education in the subjects of ethics and financial relationships and until he has been assessed as competent in these areas by the Department. Additionally, pursuant to the Order Fixing Costs dated February 2, 2012, Respondent was ordered to pay $3224.92 in costs by August 2, 2012.

On May 25, 2012, the Department issued an Order Approving Continuing Education Courses and Imposing Requirement for Assessment of Competency. Respondent has submitted proof verifying his completion of the above courses, as well as written statements exhibiting his competency in the above subjects.
