- 3. At all times relevant to this proceeding, Respondent was working as a dentist at Wisconsin Rapids, Wisconsin.
- 4. Respondent began abusing hydrocodone intermittently while a student in college, and continued the abuse with greater frequency while in dental school. Between his graduation from dental school in 2002 and October 2009, he continued to abuse hydrocodone.
- 5. Respondent obtained hydrocodone by providing prescriptions for hydrocodone to other persons, other than in the course of legitimate practice of dentistry, in exchange for part or all of the tablets he prescribed to those other persons.
- 6. In October 2009, Respondent began to extricate himself from his abuse of hydrocodone and his relationships with the other persons involved in the illegitimate prescription plan.
- 7. In or about May 2010, one of the persons with whom Respondent had been involved in the illegitimate traffic in hydrocodone informed law enforcement authorities about Respondent's activities.
- 8. In June 2010, law enforcement authorities interviewed Respondent. Respondent admitted his illegitimate prescribing of hydrocodone, surrendered his DEA license, and forfeited his automobile, a 2008 Infinity, because it had been used in several instances as the place for other persons involved to pick up the illegitimate prescriptions.
