2011CM210. The court accepted the plea and the judgment of conviction was entered on September 2, 2011, based on the following:

- a. Respondent called in prescriptions for hydrocodone to a pharmacy stating she was Dr. S's nurse. Respondent was not Dr. S's nurse.
  - b. Respondent went to the pharmacy to pick up the prescription for hydrocodone and was arrested.
  - c. During police interview, Respondent originally lied to the police officer stating the prescription was for her father.
  - d. Respondent later admitted to falsifying the prescriptions and obtaining the medication for her personal use. Respondent stated she was currently using hydrocodone.
  - e. The police officer verified with Dr. S that he did not authorize the prescriptions.
3. Respondent was admitted into the Professional Assistance Procedure (PAP) program based on the facts above and her diagnosis of opioid and physiological dependence.
4. As part of Respondent's PAP participation, Respondent was required to engage in therapy and the therapist needed to submit a therapy report to the PAP coordinator.
5. On July 10, 2013, the PAP coordinator received a faxed therapy report from the therapist recommending modification of treatment. When the PAP coordinator called the therapist, he was informed the therapist never sent the report. The therapist reviewed a copy of the report and stated it was not her handwriting or signature and that the document was forged.
6. On August 5, 2013, Respondent called the PAP coordinator and admitted the report was fraudulent.
7. Based on the fraudulent report, Respondent was dismissed from PAP.
