ACADEMIC INFORMATION AND POLICIES

ACADEMIC CODE OF CONDUCT FOR THE DISTANCE EDUCATION STUDENT

As a student of a DEAC-accredited distance education institution, I recognize that in the pursuit of my educational goals and aspirations, I have certain responsibilities toward my fellow distance learners, my institution and myself. To fulfill these responsibilities, I pledge adherence to this Code of Conduct. I will observe fully the standards, rules, policies and guidelines established by my institution, the Distance Education Accrediting Commission, the State Education Agency and other appropriate organizations serving an oversight role for my institution.

I will adhere to high ethical standards in the pursuit of my education, and to the best of my ability will:

1. Present my qualifications and background truthfully and accurately for admission to the institution.
2. Observe the institutional policies and rules on submitting work, taking examinations, participating in online discussions and conducting research (where applicable).

Per Tennessee 1540-01-02-.11(o), At-Home Professions is required to list the following within the first four pages of this catalog: At-Home Professions is authorized by the Tennessee Higher Education Commission. This authorization must be renewed each year and is based on an evaluation by minimum standards concerning quality of education, ethical business practices, health and safety, and fiscal responsibility. For all other state authorization or refund information, please see Appendix B in the back of this catalog.*

3. Never turn in work that is not my own, or present another person's ideas or scholarship as my own.
4. Never ask for, receive or give unauthorized help on graded assignments, quizzes and examinations.
5. Never use outside books or papers that are unauthorized by my instructor's assignments or examinations.
6. Never divulge the content of or answers to quizzes or examinations to fellow students.

8. Never divulge my online username or password (where applicable).

*Washington Residents: Nothing in this policy prevents the student from contacting the Workforce Board at 360-709-4600 at any time with a concern or complaint. In addition, please review the school grievance policy if you have a concern or complaint.

ACADEMIC PROGRESS

Student progress is monitored by the instructional staff. Students who do not make passing grades are subject to academic review. During the review, the school reviews the student's performance to evaluate if the student appears to have the ability to benefit from the program. If the student is deemed to not have the ability to benefit from the program, the school will cancel the enrollment and notify the student. If the student is found to have the ability to benefit, the school will determine what probationary steps need to occur for the student to continue with their studies. For example, a student may be asked to repeat assignments and/or take extra time to review particular lessons. If the student is allowed to continue with their studies, the Dean of Faculty will monitor student progress to ensure the student is meeting the probationary terms. Students who fail to meet probationary terms will be dismissed from the school.

If the course is not commenced, or the student fails to attend by the new start date set forth in the agreement, the student will be entitled to an appropriate refund of prepaid tuition and fees within 30 days of the deadline of the new start date set forth in the agreement, determined in accordance with the school's refund policy and all applicable laws and rules concerning the Private Occupational Education Act of 1981.

DEAN'S LIST

If you obtain a grade point average of 93 or higher in the program, you will be awarded a seat on the At-Home Professions Dean's List. Your name will appear on our Dean's List if you previously granted approval in writing.

ENROLLMENT PERIOD LIMITS AND LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Students may begin their enrollment period on any business day, and may progress at their own pace, but must complete the course work contained in the period of enrollment within 36 months. Enrollment may be extended for an additional enrollment period without additional charges.

Students who are temporarily unable to continue their programs due to personal circumstances or emergencies may be granted a leave of absence of up to six months. During a leave of absence, a student's enrollment period is placed "on hold." At the end of the designated period, students are expected to resume course work.

To receive a leave of absence, a request letter must be written to the Director of Student Affairs, stating the reasons for the request and the time period of leave requested (not to exceed six months). Should circumstances change at any time during the leave period, students may notify the school that they wish to end their leave of absence, and they may resume course work at that time.

GRADING SYSTEM

The school uses a number-letter system of grading, with number grades being assigned to quizzes and letter grades to completed courses. The course Grade Point Average is determined by obtaining a weighted average of quizzes. Repeat quizzes are not available. Grades are reported to students via the student website and/or graded assignments returned by mail.

Numerical Grade	Letter Grade	Rating
92-100	A	Excellent
85-91	B	Good
75-84	C	Average
70-74	D	Passing
Below 70	F	Fail (no credit)

GRADUATE SUPPORT

As a leading distance education institution specializing in preparing students for vocational careers, At-Home Professions has a strong commitment to the success of its graduates. In addition to the Career Starter Guide provided in Course 5, At-Home Professions employs graduate counselors to assist graduates with their job search skills. Our staff is well-trained and ready to assist graduates with advice, training in job search techniques, résumé review, interviewing skills, marketing skills, presentation skills and networking. The graduate counseling service is available to all At-Home Professions graduates. A graduate is defined as an At-Home Professions student who: 1) has successfully completed all coursework, and 2) successfully maintains their tuition payment obligation.

While graduate support and career counseling is provided, it is understood that the school does not provide placement services and cannot promise or guarantee employment to any student or graduate. Prospective students, students and graduates are expected to investigate licensing, certification or other professional designations.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

In order to graduate and receive a diploma, students must:

- 1) complete the full Healthcare Documentation Program,
- 2) submit all quizzes and achieve a weighted numerical average of at least 70%, and
- 3) have paid at least 50% of tuition and be current in payments.

South Carolina Graduates receive a certificate of completion.

HOW THE PROGRAM IS ORGANIZED AND DELIVERED

Each program is designed for guided independent study through distance education. Study is conducted via blended distance learning. Textbooks are provided electronically. Students may contact the school at 1.800.359.3455 to purchase physical copies of textbooks for a nominal charge of $30 per course. Programs are organized into easy-to-follow lessons with step-by-step directions. Each lesson teaches specific skills and contains a variety of learning activities such as practice exercises and quizzes. Answers to practice exercises are in the back of the book. Quizzes are submitted to the school for evaluation and grading. Graded quizzes are returned to the students along with constructive feedback. This feedback helps students develop their skills. Quizzes are returned to the student in the same manner (i.e. online, email, mail) the student submitted the quiz. Quiz grades are recorded by the school and become part of the student's transcript.

Shipment of each course is automatic upon receipt of the third to last assignment in the student's current course of study. For example, once a student submits the third to last assignment in the first course, the second course will automatically be made available to the student.

Tuition for each course is charged when a new course is made available using the payment method the student selected on the enrollment agreement. If the student wishes to change the payment method, he or she will contact the school before the first quiz is submitted. Students are urged to carefully read the terms outlined in their enrollment agreement for complete details.

LEARNING RESOURCES

Students are provided with all course and instructional materials necessary to complete the course work. This may not include computers, transcribing equipment, or other business machines; shipping; internet access; or specialized reference publications normally available at medical or public libraries. Students are encouraged to make use of resources available to them in their communities. These include public, private, and professional libraries and research facilities. For course-related problems, students should request help from school staff members in locating specific sources. At-Home Professions reserves the right to change and revise course materials as needed.

MILITARY SATISFACTORY PROGRESS

Students are allowed to proceed through their course at their own pace. Satisfactory progress is considered to be submission of a minimum of four assignments per quarter.

STUDY TIPS

Studying at home is convenient and flexible. It can also be challenging. Following are tips to help students successfully study from home:

1. Follow Directions

The most important point for you to remember is to follow the directions given in the program. Complete the reading, studying, Practice Exercises and Quizzes as directed. Always remember to check the results of Practice Exercises, review any errors and be sure to understand those errors.

2. Establish a Comfortable, Well-lit Learning Place

Find a place in your home that is comfortable and well-lit. This may be your kitchen, living room or bedroom—or a special study area that you create. Doing this will help remove stress and tension and allow you to concentrate on your lessons.

Your chair should be comfortable and provide good back and body support. Lighting should be bright but non-glaring and focused on your materials without casting shadows.

When studying, keep study materials close at hand. This will prevent interruptive trips across the room—and loss of concentration.

3. Eliminate All Distractions

To keep your mind clear for learning, you will need to schedule study sessions in time periods when you will not be distracted. Remove yourself from your family's traffic and noise patterns, and inform family members that you are not to be disturbed during your study session. Also, schedule this time period when you are alert and likely to be at your best.

Scheduling will probably be the biggest challenge that you have to face. Most everyone can, however, find a couple of one-hour periods during the day to concentrate on learning that will lead to a new and satisfying career.

Your study sessions do not have to be long, blurry-eyed marathons. In fact, we all learn better and can focus our concentration when study sessions are kept short, not exceeding one hour each.

Your learning sessions should, however, be regular, everyday activities. Regular studying will help you remember yesterday's lesson and tie it to the new activity. Also, when you do this, you will constantly be reinforcing your learning and solidifying your skills to make them a permanent part of your abilities.

4. Plan and Scan Each Lesson before Detailed Study

Learning experts claim that planning and scanning a lesson will increase your learning effectiveness by 25 percent or more.

When you begin a lesson, read the first page, and find out what you will be learning in the lesson. Once you have identified your learning objectives for the lesson, you will be striving to meet specific goals.

When you have done this, scan the entire lesson. Take from five to 15 minutes to read headings, bold and boxed print, the first sentences of paragraphs and any symbols or illustrations. This will give you a firm idea of what you will be learning—and what you will have to do to achieve your goals for the lesson.

Then, when you do your detailed study, write notes in the margins of your lesson or on your own paper. Highlight important information in the lesson. Making notes will put the knowledge in your own words and make it a permanent part of your pattern of skills.

5. Frequent Review Is Necessary and Reinforcing

Once you have completed a lesson, review the instruction within 24 hours. This will help you verify your understanding of the instruction and further reinforce your learning. You can do this by reading the notes you have made and scanning the important parts of the lessons.

6. Ask Questions When You Have Them, and Use Your New Knowledge Whenever You Can

Your lessons are clear and easy to understand. It is likely, however, that you will have questions from time to time. When you have a question, please ask so we can help you get the right answer. We have several specialists and resource persons on our staff who will be happy to answer your questions through email, in writing when you use a Student Assistance Form or on the telephone if your question is urgent.

Then, to really nail down your learning, use it. Tell your family members about what you have studied, or mention some of your new concepts to friends. Also, read healthcare articles and any other literature that relates to what you've learned. Each day or two, see if you can recall and summarize the last lesson studied (without referring to the pages). Following this practice will provide the overlearning that makes correct responses automatic.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Due to the unique nature of At-Home Professions' programs, and the fact that At-Home Professions' instructors must verify that the school's standards have been met, students are not permitted to transfer credit in for any of the instruction. To earn a diploma, each student must complete all of the quizzes. Note: Military members may be eligible for transfer credit and should contact Financial Aid upon enrollment for details.

The acceptance of transfer academic credits to another institution is determined by the receiving institution. Institutions individually establish criteria for transfer credit acceptance based on many factors, including but not limited to course content, degree or non-degree course, final grade, credits per course, type of accreditation, age of credits, etc. Courses in At-Home Professions' certificate programs may or may not transfer to other institutions and depends solely on the receiving institution's criteria and determination. At-Home Professions does not imply or guarantee the transferability of its credits to any other institution unless there is a written agreement with another institution.

HEALTHCARE DOCUMENTATION PROGRAM 1163 CLOCK HOURS

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAM

The Healthcare Documentation Program provides practical instruction to train students to process medical claims, research and assign diagnostic and procedural codes to medical records, and transcribe and edit dictation. To bill effectively, students explore the insurance world, including both private and government programs. They learn how insurance companies interact with medical-service providers through forms, follow-up letters, and claims processing. Students complete claims, both by hand and using medical billing software, and they study secondary claims, reimbursement, and how to solve insurance problems. They also examine how to work with doctors, hospitals and other healthcare providers to ensure these providers receive fair and accurate compensation for their services. Students gain competency in ICD-10-CM and CPT coding. The program provides students with a solid foundation of ethics and problem-solving, medical terminology, human anatomy and physiology, and common disease processes. Students apply their knowledge using real-world, coding scenarios and medical records. In the final section of the program, students examine specific medical report formats, punctuation, and medical terminology used in the field of transcription. Then, they prepare and edit actual medical reports that meet professional standards.

The Healthcare Documentation Program is specifically designed for guided independent study through distance learning.

Upon completion of this program, graduates will be trained to:

- Integrate medical terminology, human anatomy, physiology and disease processes with medical transcription, coding and billing systems.
- Apply effective medical ethics and legal theory in your career.
- Implement the essential skills of medical billing, electronic claims submission and insurance form completion for medical service providers.
- Apply theory and practical skills to assign diagnostic and procedural codes to medical records.
- Transcribe and edit medical reports in proper formats for a variety of medical specialties.
- Work within the healthcare document specialist's scope of practice based on ethical and legal guidelines.

MEDICAL TRANSCRIPTION & EDITING PROGRAM

1395 CLOCK HOURS

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAM

The Medical Transcription & Editing Program contains instruction which prepares students to complete medical reports. From that solid base of knowledge and skills gained, students then prepare or edit actual medical reports which meet professional standards, under the direction of qualified instructors. In producing documents and reports which do meet high standards as a part of the regular course work, students have solid evidence to show prospective employers which clearly demonstrates competency to perform medical transcription and editing assignments at the entry level.

The transcription program is specifically designed for guided independent study through distance learning.

Students must be able to type by touch in order to begin the Medical Transcription & Editing Program, and it is recommended that they attain a typing speed of at least 45 wpm by the time they complete the training as this is the speed required by some employers.

The course work in the learning programs will enable students to gain:

- Complete skills required for entry-level competency in the medical transcription and editing field.
- Operating knowledge of procedures and principles for setting up a home-based transcription business, and/or apply the skills and knowledge gained in the doctor's office or hospital setting.
- The ability to deal effectively with professionals in the fields served and the ability to carry out the transactions necessary to conduct the business.

SERVICES AVAILABLE TO STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Access Policy for Students with Disabilities

It is the policy of At-Home Professions to provide reasonable accommodation to qualified applicants and students with disabilities in accordance with applicable law, the College's admissions and academic standards, and sound ethical practice in disability services. This policy, in conjunction with the At-Home Professions' equal opportunity policy, enables At-Home Professions to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, which require that no person be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise subjected to discrimination in any program or activity offered by At-Home Professions. A disability is a documented physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities. An applicant or student is qualified if he or she meets the academic and technical standards for a program or activity offered by At-Home Professions with or without reasonable accommodation.

An applicant or student with a disability who seeks accommodation should notify the Director of Compliance/ Disabilities Services Coordinator by submitting documentation and a request for accommodation, as specified in this policy, so that the request can be evaluated and reasonable accommodation(s) provided. The Director of Compliance/Disabilities Services can be contacted at janetp@at-homeprofessions.edu or 800.359.3455, ext. 6323.

Applicants/Students with disabilities have the following rights and responsibilities:

- Right to equal access to all programs.
- Disability records will be maintained separately from academic records. Disability records will be used solely to determine appropriate services.
- Disability records will remain confidential and will only be shared on a need-to-know basis with individual faculty or administrators responsible for administering the granted reasonable accommodations.

- Responsibility to give advance notification of accommodations needed prior to the beginning of an academic program (unless reasonable accommodations are needed for entrance examination procedures or other pre-enrollment activity. In such cases, the student should notify the Director of Compliance/Disability Services Coordinator during the enrollment process.)
- Responsibility to initiate the request for services or reasonable accommodations. Requests should be addressed to the Director of Compliance/Disability Services Coordinator. Students must communicate to the Director of Compliance/Disability Services Coordinator the nature of their disability and their request for reasonable accommodations to allow them full participation in programs.
- Responsibility to submit documentation of their disability and a request for services to the extent At-Home Professions requires it to understand the student's needs. The required documentation includes the following: a diagnosis of your current disability, as well as supporting information, such as the date of the diagnosis, how that diagnosis was reached, and the credentials of the diagnosing professional; information on how your disability affects a major life activity; and information on how the disability affects your academic performance. The documentation should provide enough information for you and the College to determine appropriate academic adjustments or reasonable accommodations. Expenses incurred in obtaining such documentation are the responsibility of the student.

The following documentation should be forwarded to the Director of Compliance upon admission or at any time concurrent with a request for accommodations:

For physical disabilities:

- A statement of the physical impairment from a licensed healthcare professional, qualified and currently or recently associated with the student.
- A statement as to how the student is limited in functionality in a major life activity.
- Recommendation for reasonable online accommodations.
- In the case of hearing impairment, the student should also submit a report from an audiologist that includes the results of an audiogram and the degree of the hearing loss.

For mental disabilities:

A statement or report from a licensed psychologist or psychiatrist that includes the following items:

- Statement of DSM-IV condition or impairment.
- Summary of assessment procedures used to make the diagnosis.
- Description of present symptoms and fluctuating condition symptoms in relation to the impairment.
- Current medications and side effects as they may impair the student's academic performance or ability to function in an online classroom.
- A description of functional limitations in a major life activity.
- Recommendations for reasonable accommodations for the online classroom.

For learning disabilities:

- A diagnostic interview by a qualified evaluator that includes historical information of learning difficulties in elementary, secondary and post-secondary education.

- A comprehensive diagnostic interview that addresses relevant background information supporting the impairment, including developmental history, academic history and psychosocial history.
- A record of comprehensive testing that is current (within past two years and after age of 18).
- A description of functional limitations in a major life activity.
- Recommendations as to reasonable accommodations for the online classroom.

After an applicant or student has compiled relevant documentation and submitted a request for accommodation to the Director of Compliance / Disabilities Services Coordinator, the Director of Compliance / Disabilities Services Coordinator will consider the information and documentation provided by the applicant or student, consult with appropriate instructors and/or school officials as needed, and determine what constitutes reasonable accommodation(s) for the applicant or student's disability. A list of approved accommodation(s) will be provided to the applicant or student and shared with any instructors and/or school officials who will be responsible for providing or making arrangements for such accommodation(s).

If a student wishes to file a complaint regarding any disability discrimination, the student should first report the concern to the Director of Compliance/Disability Services Coordinator. If the situation cannot be resolved through that process, the student should follow the At-Home Professions grievance procedure provided in the Catalog. Students also have the right to file an ADA or Section 504 complaint with the Office for Civil Rights (OCR) of the U.S. Department of Education.

STUDENT IDENTITY VERIFICATION POLICY

The student identity verification policy enables At-Home Professions to verify that the student who registers in a course or program is the same student who participates in and completes the course or program. The Student Identity Verification Policy follows:

- A. All students are assigned a secure, individual Student Identification Number (ID) and password at the time of enrollment. Students have the option of creating their own unique password, or receiving a system generated password. These assigned identifiers are used to access the student records.
- B. Students enrolled in an online course or program, must enter their password a second time to access AHP's Learning Management System.

Students who have forgotten their password or request to change their password must contact Student Services. The Student Services representative will ask the student to confirm identifying information before updating the password.

Appropriate use of technology is the student's responsibility. Students should take precautionary measures to keep login credentials secure and make arrangements to change password credentials periodically or in the event a breach is suspected.

Records: Permanent academic records, which include transcripts, are maintained for all school students. Individual records will be maintained for a minimum of six years following the end of the last enrollment period, graduation or withdrawal. The contents of these records are confidential and will not be divulged except upon written request of the student or as required by state or regulatory agencies.

Transcripts: Transcripts of academic records are available to the student, or can be sent to an institution or person designated by the student, when the student makes the request in writing. A request for a transcript should be accompanied by a $15.00 fee for each transcript requested.

APPENDIX B

REFUND POLICIES

All students have a seven-day cancellation period. All fees paid by a student will be refunded if the student chooses to withdraw from the school within seven calendar days after having signed the enrollment agreement. Following the cancellation period, students may withdraw from At-Home Professions at any time by submitting a request for cancellation. The institution uses the Total Course Price in preparing enrollment agreements, calculating refund amounts and collecting student accounts. Total Course Price includes charges for tuition, registration, educational services and instruction. Total Course Price also includes earned financial charges, and any fees that are charged to all students for required services, such as proctoring, technology access, and library services. Costs expended for normal shipping and handling are not subject to refund (after the expiration of the 7 calendar day cooling-off period). The amount students owe upon withdrawing is determined by how much of the program (or study area/s) they have completed, deducting all payments made. Upon cancellation, the amount due to the school or the amount refunded to the student is calculated according to the schedule specified by the state of the student's residence. Applicants who are denied admission will be refunded all tuition and fees paid. The refund schedules of each state are listed below. For states not listed or students using military education benefits, see the end of this appendix.

1. The $150 registration fee will be kept by the school.
2. If no quizzes have been submitted, all remaining fees will be refunded.

4. Shipping and handling are not refundable after the seven-day cancellation period.
5. All refunds shall be issued 30 days after notice of cancellation or withdrawal.
