

Bulletin

As the document of authority for all students, the Bulletin is your guide to the departments, programs, policies, and courses at BU. Requirements listed here take precedence over information found elsewhere.

More about the Bulletin

Current Bulletin 2018/2019

Bulletin Archives

The 2018/2019 Bulletin applies to students who were admitted for a start date in 2018/2019. Students admitted in earlier years must have permission from their academic department to follow the 2018/2019 Bulletin year. The University reserves the right to change the Bulletin and academic policies listed within at any time. Read more...

Students who were admitted prior to 2018/2019 may find their academic Bulletin in the Bulletin Archives.

BU Hub

The BU Hub is our University-wide general education program. In the Hub, students explore a broad array of disciplines and ways of thinking as they prepare to navigate an increasingly complex and interconnected world. The Hub helps students develop skills that will equip them to thrive in their personal, professional, and civic lives.

- Overview
- Courses
- Policies

College of Arts & Sciences

The largest college at BU—with 24 departments—CAS is where you'll find undergraduate programs in the humanities, natural and computational sciences, and social sciences.

- Overview
- Programs
- Departments
- Courses
- Policies

Graduate School of Arts & Sciences

With nearly 40 areas of humanities, natural and computational sciences, and social sciences to choose from, GRS is home to approximately 1,800 graduate degree candidates and faculty from many schools and colleges at BU.

- Overview
- Programs
- Departments
- Courses
- Policies

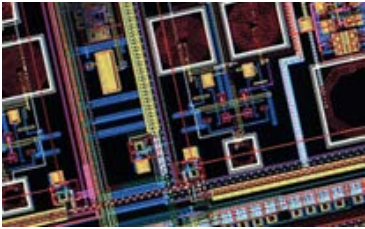

College of Communication

From Mass Communication, Advertising & Public Relations, to Journalism, to Film & Television, COM's departments offer graduate and undergraduate

- Overview
- Programs
- Departments
- Courses
- Policies

programs dedicated to training well-rounded professional communicators.

College of Engineering

Choose from programs in Biomedical, Electrical & Computer, Mechanical, Systems Engineering, and Materials Science & Engineering. Whatever the topic, ENG is focused on advancing the frontiers of science and technology through research, discovery, and innovation.

- Overview
- Programs
- Departments
- Courses
- Policies

College of Fine Arts

CFA's three schools—Music, Theatre, and Visual Arts—form an intense, dynamic arts community combining professional, individualized training at the graduate and undergraduate levels with collaborative work that increasingly crosses departments and schools.

- Overview
- Programs
- Departments
- Courses
- Policies

College of General Studies

This two-year college offers an integrated liberal arts core curriculum, taught through a collaborative team structure. From here, students continue into specific majors in the University's various liberal arts and professional degree programs.

- Overview
- Programs
- Departments
- Courses
- Policies

College of Health & Rehabilitation Sciences: Sargent College

Four departments—Health Sciences, Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy & Athletic Training, and Speech, Language & Hearing Sciences—offer programs focused on professional training and cutting-edge research. Students doing fieldwork benefit from a clinical network of more than 1,400 affiliations worldwide—400 of them in Greater Boston.

- Overview
- Programs
- Departments
- Courses
- Policies

Metropolitan College

Choose from more than 60 full- and part-time degree and certificate programs, as well as noncredit courses of study and an undergraduate degree completion program. On-campus, online, and blended programs in fields as varied as literature, computer science, management, criminal justice, and gastronomy—to name a few—are available to MET students.

- Overview
- Programs
- Courses
- Policies

Wheelock College of Education & Human Development

Grads and undergrads choose a concentration from more than 20 areas, including early childhood education, higher education, counseling, and policy. The school's many collaborative arrangements provide myriad professional

- Overview
- Programs
- Courses
- Policies

training and practica opportunities.

Questrom School of Business

The Questrom School of Business' curricula emphasize digital technologies, health and life sciences, and energy and the environment. Undergraduates can earn a BSBA, while graduate students choose from MS, MBA, PhD, and dual degree programs.

- Overview
- Programs
- Courses
- Policies

Henry M. Goldman School of Dental Medicine

SDM offers the Doctor of Dental Medicine (a traditional four-year and advanced-standing two-year) and advanced certificates and degrees, such as CAGS, MSD, DSc, and DScD, in all recognized specialties. Qualified undergrads can enroll in the seven-year program to earn a BA or BS from CAS and a DMD.

- Overview
- Programs
- Departments
- Courses
- Policies

School of Hospitality Administration

Bachelor of Science candidates get a solid liberal arts background along with professional training in the hospitality industry, including internships and study abroad. Students may earn a BS or a combined BS/MLA in Gastronomy with Metropolitan College.

- Overview
- Programs
- Courses
- Policies

School of Law

JD and LLM departments offer a range of programs and specializations, including American law, intellectual property law, banking and financial law, and tax law, as well as several dual degree programs with other BU schools and colleges.

- Overview
- Programs
- Courses
- Policies

School of Medicine

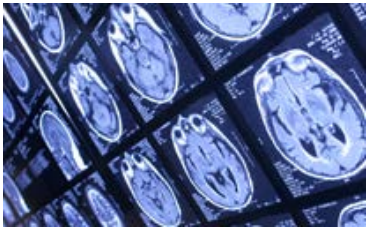

With 22 departments, students have multiple pathways to MD or combined degree programs in their chosen fields and specialties. Students take advantage of cutting-edge clinical facilities and laboratories on the Medical Campus and with affiliated institutions throughout the city and the nation.

- Overview
- Programs
- Departments
- Courses
- Policies

Division of Graduate Medical Sciences

Emphasizing research and graduate education in the biomedical sciences, GMS offers 33 fields of study—including interdisciplinary programs in many areas—leading to master's, PhD, or MD/PhD degrees as well as certificates.

- Overview
- Programs
- Departments
- Courses
- Policies

School of Public Health

Students pursue different levels and approaches to their comprehensive public health studies, from professional master's and doctoral degrees to specialized academic MS and PhD programs. Certificate and dual degree programs with other BU graduate schools are also available.

- Overview
- Programs
- Departments
- Courses
- Policies

School of Social Work

Master's and doctoral students get specialized training for social work in urban environments. Students choose either clinical (individuals, families, groups) or macro (community organization, management, and planning) practice. MSW, PhD, dual degrees and certificates are offered.

- Overview
- Programs
- Courses
- Policies

School of Theology

This graduate professional school offers an array of programs at the master's and doctoral levels, preparing students for ministries and vocations that foster personal and social transformation. The School emphasizes community principles of love, justice, safety, rights, responsibilities, and respect.

- Overview
- Programs
- Courses
- Policies

Division of Military Education

This typically four-year program culminates in a commission in the Army, Navy, Air Force, or Marine Corps. ROTC students receive hands-on leadership training that builds strong team bonds and develops confidence, discipline, stamina, poise, and management skills.

- Overview
- Programs
- Departments
- Courses
- Policies

Department of Physical Ed., Recreation & Dance

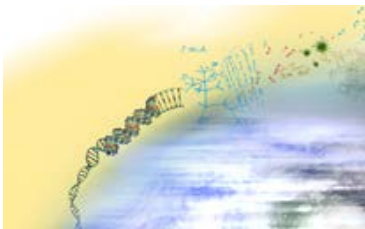

Members of the BU community take advantage of credit and non-credit classes, a family recreation program, club sports, and a minor in dance. Facilities include the Fitness & Recreation Center, the Case Center/Walter Brown Arena, Nickerson Field, the Track & Tennis Center, and the sailing pavilion.

- Overview
- Programs
- Courses
- Policies

Arvind & Chandan Nandlal Kilachand Honors College

Honors College undergrads are part of a new approach to liberal education. Pursue a major in one of BU's schools and colleges, such as Arts & Sciences, Management, Fine Arts, and Engineering, while completing Honors College

- Overview
- Courses

seminars, studios, and a keystone project. Cocurricular activities include lectures, readings, and performances on- and off-campus.

Boston University Academy

This small, independent, coeducational high school provides intellectually curious, academically strong students with diverse interests a traditional, classically based core curriculum. Students graduate with up to 48 undergraduate-level credits, some of which may be transferred to college upon matriculation.

BUA website

Study Abroad

BU Study Abroad offers students from Boston University close to 100 academic and internship programs in 25 countries spanning six continents. Boston University Study Abroad offers excellent, innovative, and diverse cross-cultural learning experiences for all students. Our study abroad programs cultivate the intellectual, professional, and personal qualities necessary for success in an increasingly interconnected world.

Overview Programs

Center for English Language & Orientation Programs

At CELOP, international students can find programs to improve their English and understanding of US culture while living on Boston University's rich and diverse campus. Students can learn English from elementary to advanced levels; prepare for entrance into US higher education institutions; enhance their communication skills in a professional setting; or, improve their English skills while pursuing undergraduate or graduate degrees in the US.

Overview Programs
Courses Policies

