Greetings!

Are you still thinking about going back to school?

You don't have lots of time, and you need to stay within your budget.

Maybe you are in a job that is just that. A job, a paycheck and you are soooooo ready for a change.

Well Greetings! This is your time. Rx Tech Prep is a concentrated 11 week (only 1 day per week) program that will help you gain a solid foundation in pharmacy AND gain national certification as a pharmacy technician, one of the fastest growing occupations in the medical field.

Join our Pharmacy Technician Classroom Program that begins September 20th 2018.

The LAST class of the year.

24- year-old college graduate finds better luck with a certificate program

Todd, a young man with a Bachelor's degree, could not find work for the longest time. Desperate for change, and with a small interest in pharmacy, he decided to enroll at Rx Tech Prep, an 11- week pharmacy technician school. He did fabulous in the program, and really enjoyed the material. He got nationally certified and landed a full-time hospital pharmacy position. Todd appreciated Rx Tech Prep so much, he volunteered to speak to the local news on behalf of the education he received from the accelerated, condensed program.

"I thought what do I have to lose...and turns out I had everything to gain with Rx Tech Prep."
