Refunds are sent by devCodeCamp via the US Postal Service or by Certified Mail. If refund is sent via US Postal service it will be mailed within 35 days of the effective date of withdrawal. If sent via Certified Mail the school will issue refund within 40 days of effective date of withdrawal. A written notice of withdrawal is not required. Full Refund: A student will only receive a full refund of all money paid if the student cancels within the 3 business-day cancellation period; the student accepted was unqualified and the school did not secure a disclaimer; the school procured the student's enrollment as the result of false representations in the written materials used by the school or in oral representations made by or on behalf of the school, or if the school cancels the program. devCodeCamp, Inc. will issue refunds within 10 business-days of cancellation.

Before Attending Any Units of Instruction: 100% refund

Partial Refund: A student who withdraws or is dismissed after the 3 business-day cancellation period, but before completing 60% of the clock hours in the program, shall be entitled to a pro rata refund, less any amounts owed by the student for the program. Pro rata refund shall be determined as the number of clock hours (units) remaining after the last unit completed, divided by the total number of clock hours (units) in the program, rounded downward to the nearest ten percent. Pro rata refund is the resulting percent applied to the total tuition.

No refund: No refund is required for any student who withdraws or is dismissed after completing 60% of the potential clock hours (units) of instruction in the program unless a student withdraws due to mitigating circumstances, which are those that directly, prohibit pursuit of a program and which are beyond the student's control. Pro rata refund shall be determined as the number of clock hours (units) remaining after the last unit completed divided by the total number of units in the program, rounded downward to the nearest ten percent. Pro rata refund is the resulting percent applied to the total tuition for the program.

VETERANS REFUND POLICY

When a veteran or other eligible student enrolled in a non-accredited school fails or ceases to attend a class, withdraws from a class or is terminated for any reason before a class is completed, the school will refund a pro-rata portion of all tuition, fees, and other related charges for that class. The exact proration will be determined by the ratio of the number of days of instruction completed by the student to the total number of instructional days for the course. An established registration fee (variously designated as an application fee, enrollment fee, or the like) in an amount not to exceed $10, need not be subject to proration. Where the established fee is more than $10, the amount in excess of $10 is subject to proration. In addition, pro rata refunds must be made within 40 days after the last class attended, or the effective date of the withdrawal or termination. (Authority: 38 CFR 21.4255)
