Please read this agreement prior to viewing the Decision:

- The Reports of Decisions is designed to contain copies of all orders issued by credentialing authorities within the Department of Safety and Professional Services from November, 1998 to the present. In addition, many but not all orders for the time period between 1977 and November, 1998 are posted. Not all orders issued by a credentialing authority constitute a formal disciplinary action.

Because this data base changes constantly, the Department is not responsible for subsequent entries that update, correct or delete data. The Department is not responsible for notifying prior requesters of updates, modifications, corrections or deletions. All users have the responsibility to determine whether information obtained from this site is still accurate, current and complete.
- There may be discrepancies between the online copies and the original document. Original documents should be consulted as the definitive representation of the order's content. Copies of original orders may be obtained by mailing requests to the Department of Safety and Professional Services, PO Box 8935, Madison, WI 53708-8935. The Department charges copying fees. All requests must cite the case number, the date of the order, and respondent's name as it appears on the order.
- Reported decisions may have an appeal pending, and discipline may be stayed during the appeal. Information about the current status of a credential issued by the Department of Safety and Professional Services is shown on the Department's Web Site under "License Lookup."

As laid out above, these actions are violations of Wisconsin Statute and Code and can subject your credentials to a revocation.

The Department allowed you an opportunity to respond. You responded to the first allegation admitting that you gave a body piercing to a 13-year-old girl and stating that you have been tattooing since you were 13 years old and were never aware a license was needed until the day you applied for one. Another response was requested following the receipt of the second complaint, but you failed to respond to multiple attempts at contact. Failure to respond to a request from the Department is a violation of Wis. Stat. § 440.20(5)(a).

Therefore, based on the foregoing, the Department finds that a revocation is appropriate and is entered pursuant to Wis. Admin. Code § SPS 221.07 and the terms laid out in this document.

Pursuant to Wis. Admin. Code § SPS 221.08, you have the right to request a hearing on the revocation by sending a request for hearing to the Department of Administration Division of Hearings and Appeals, 4822 Madison Yards Way, 5th Floor North, Madison, Wisconsin 53705, which must be received by the Division no later than 15 days from the date of mailing of this Notice. The request for a hearing on the revocation shall set out specifically and in full detail every reason why this order is unreasonable, and every issue to be considered by the department on the hearing. Anything not addressed in the request shall be deemed waived. Any hearing on the revocation will be held in accordance with the requirements set forth in Wis. Stat. ch. 227.
