200 Hour Yoga Teacher Training
January through May 2024

Mission Statement:

Upon completion of this 200 Hour Yoga Teacher Training, you will become confident and well educated on how to lead a powerful and inspirational vinyasa style yoga class to a diversity of individuals. This in itself is quite a gift; however, what you will learn from within yourself throughout your yoga teacher training journey will be priceless!

The Vinyasa Style Practice:

Vinyasa is a harmonious and intelligent flow of breath and movement synchronized to enhance your mind, body, and soul. The word “vinyasa” is derived from the Sanskrit term nyasa, which means “to place,” and the prefix vi, “in a special way.” Vinyasa yoga is an influential practice you will feel on your mat, and an artful approach to living... a way of applying the tools you learned in your practice off your mat. This style will teach you how to apply the skills and awareness from your yoga practice to all the rhythms and sequences of life, including your relationship with yourself as well as others, work ethic, and your personal evolution.

What Students can Expect to Gain:

How the Program Works and How We Will Assess Your Progress:

Scheduled Modules

Each weekend will include a combination of lectures, discussions, and integration practices in key content areas. The format of each weekend is designed to progress the student's knowledge and growth in the best order to grow within their own practice and understand the practice as a teacher. Since the days of the training are carefully sequenced, attendance for every day is mandatory.

If you have a pre-existing circumstance or an unexpected circumstance were to arise that prohibits you from attending any of the training, you will be required to make up direct contact hours with the lead teacher at an additional expense of $50/hour or during the next training. If you anticipate missing any training, please contact Lauren Quella at lauren@graceunderfireyoga.com before applying for the program.

If you miss any training time and do not notify the lead teacher, you will be dismissed from the training and will be refunded per the refund policy.

Personal Practice

Our expectation is that you will have a consistent, personal vinyasa style yoga practice already established before applying/entering this training. This will be your greatest asset throughout the experience! You will reflect on your personal practice as a learning tool to deepen a further understanding of:

- The arc of a vinyasa style yoga class
 - Sequences within the class
 - Alignment in the poses
 - Transitions between poses
 - Breath with movement
- The anatomy and biomechanics of the body
- Intention setting and speaking towards inspiration

Home Study

There will be 20 non-contact training hours that require homework assignments and study time for an anatomy test as well as for the final exam. The modules are structured in a manner that some preparation including reading, assignments, and study will be specified to complete before a given day. This schedule will be provided approximately one month in advance to the start of the training, or if less than a month to start of training, then shortly after acceptance to the program.
