ACUPUNCTURE IS AN UP INCOMING CAREER CHOICE IN HEALTHCARE

Hospitals are Integrating Acupuncture

The median income for an Acupuncturist in 2021 was $29.12 hourly, $60,570 annually, as listed by onetonline.org. MCOM graduates are already working in hospitals and medical clinics throughout the midwest. Private practice is still an option, with many major insurance companies paying for Acupuncture treatments.

All MCOM lecture courses are taught online!

Hello!

Can you believe it's finally almost fall?

The new academic year starts September 30th, and there is still time to enroll. When new students start in the fall, they are guaranteed a schedule that is 36 months. Starting other times of the year can push graduation to another year. That's why the fall start is so important.
