Student Statement

I understand that:

I am enrolling in Pepperdine University to pursue the School of Law online Program_Interest__c degree. This is a 32 unit program with two 8-week sessions within each term. The program can be completed 7 terms.

Pepperdine School of Law Master of Dispute Resolution distance education program has been granted acquiescence by the American Bar Association.

There are two in person residencies that are a required part of the curriculum and worth one credit each. I understand that I will be responsible for the associated travel and program costs.

I am responsible for my role in the academic community at Pepperdine University School of Law and understand the requirement to be ethical. I will abide by the expectations detailed by the Academic Policy. [<https://community.pepperdine.edu/law/academics/academic-policies.htm>]

There is a requirement to follow the rights and responsibilities outlined in the Student Handbook [<http://community.pepperdine.edu/law/student-life/student-handbook/>] (MLS Student Services details specific resources). Within the handbook is the Honor Code [<https://community.pepperdine.edu/law/student-life/content/sol-code-of-conduct-spring-2018.pdf>] which details my duty to maintain the well being of the legal profession and reflect the highest ethical standards. The handbook is subject to change, and such change will govern my rights and responsibilities in place of the current Handbook and will not require my subsequent consent.

The Program_Interest__c program is required to have state authorization in any state where a student resides. I understand that the Program is not yet authorized in all states, and therefore if I change the state of my primary residency, I may not be able to continue in my program. Should I plan to move, I will contact my student support advisor to determine my options for continuing in the Program. The most current list of authorized states can be viewed here: <https://onlinelaw.pepperdine.edu/legal/state-authorization-information/>

[] I understand that during my participation in the Program, I will access my classes and assignments and interact with faculty and other students through an online learning management system. Once enrolled, I will receive access to the learning management system, which will allow me to access general university and program information, asynchronous materials that are part of my program, social media features of the learning management system, and other information pertinent to the Program. Additionally, I will have access to live class sessions through the learning management system, each of which will be recorded and archived in the learning management system. By submitting my intent to enroll, I understand and acknowledge that I will be required to interact with the learning management system as part of the Program, and I agree to the Terms of Use (<https://2pep.onlinelaw.pepperdine.edu/terms>) and Privacy Policy (<https://2pep.onlinelaw.pepperdine.edu/privacy>).

[] I understand that during my participation in the Program, I will access my classes and assignments and interact with faculty and other students through an online learning management system. Once enrolled, I will receive access to the learning management system, which will allow me to access general university and program information, asynchronous materials that are part of my program, social media features of the learning management system, and other information pertinent to the program. Additionally, I will have access to live class sessions through the learning management system, each of which will be recorded and archived in the learning management system.

[] By submitting my intent to enroll, I understand and acknowledge that I will be required to interact with the learning management system as part of the Program, and I agree to the Terms of Use (<https://2pep.onlinepsych.pepperdine.edu/terms>) and Privacy Policy (<https://2pep.onlinepsych.pepperdine.edu/privacy>).

Live Sessions, Preparedness and Technology:

___ Students are required to participate in weekly live synchronous classroom sessions as well as complete asynchronous course content for the program. To maintain program success, plan to spend 2-3 hours per week for every registered credit hour.

___ Students are required to meet the minimum technology requirements for classroom participation. This includes: a personal computer no older than 2-3 years (students cannot attend live sessions via tablets or cellphones), reliable internet connection (hard wired preferred), webcam, and a working phone line (landline preferred).

___ Students must maintain professionalism during weekly live sessions. You are expected to present yourself as a professional with a purposeful and positive attitude while remaining engaged during live sessions. You will not engage in non-academic activities while participating in class (i.e. Facebook, sending or receiving instant messages, online shopping, etc).
