

M.A. in EDUCATION

Reignite your passion as a teacher.

Saint Mary's
University
SCHOOL of EDUCATION

The online MAED program at Saint Mary's University of Minnesota is designed to help you advance your career as a teacher. Our program will empower you to boldly take your current educational techniques to the next level. Apply to make an investment in your future — and the future of your students.

- Maximize your current educational practices and become a leader with one of three content specializations: Curriculum and Instruction, Culturally Responsive Teaching, Mental Health in Education.
- Leverage your skill set with our Mental Health in Education or Culturally Responsive Teaching graduate certificate
- Learn from top-notch educators and practitioners, providing practical insights, research-based instructional strategies, and ethical principles to integrate immediately.

 Apply
smumn.edu/apply

 Contact
tcadmission@smumn.edu

 Web
smumn.edu

Requirements and Curriculum

M.A. in EDUCATION (30 credits)

Core Courses (15 credits)

- EDMA600 Orientation Session (0 cr.)
- EDMA610 How Children Learn (3 cr.)
- EDMA630 Educational Research (3 cr.)
- EDMA634 Applied Research Literacy (3 cr.)
- EDMA638 Critical Thinking: Inquiry to Support Learning (3 cr.)
- EDMA699 Reflection and Resiliency in My Life (3 cr.)

Choose from one of three content specializations (15 credits each)

- Curriculum and Instruction
- Culturally Responsive Teaching
- Mental Health

Course information for each specialization can be found in the course catalog.

Current as of August 10, 2023.

Credits

30

Cost per credit

$545

Start dates

August • March

Finish faster

Two years

Location

100% Online

If you are a Wisconsin educator and want information about our M.A. in Education Custom Specialization partnership with eduCATE-WI, scan the QR code below.

Learn more about our program.

Saint Mary's University
SCHOOL of EDUCATION

Saint Mary's University of Minnesota is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission hlcommission.org