THERESA VENN

QUOTE CAPTION

“My future goals are to impact the Army community in a meaningful way.”

—Theresa Venn, Class of 2023

LONG CAPTION

Hey, Wildcats! Meet Theresa Venn, a Class of 2023 grad who earned an M.A. in Early Childhood Education Leadership. A veteran of the U.S. Army, Theresa was recently hired as an Exceptional Family Member Program Educator for the Army Community Service Center in Fort Bliss, Texas. What is she hoping to do next? “My long-term goal is to inspire veterans and military spouses to continue to pursue a higher education.” What are some of the goals you’ve been working towards? Share in the comments below!

RAVEN GOMEZ

QUOTE CAPTION

“I’m proud to represent UAGC because they gave me the knowledge to achieve great things.”

—Raven Gomez, Class of 2023

LONG CAPTION

2023 grad Raven Gomez has a lot to be proud of. Not only does she work as a business process analyst, but she’s been applying the knowledge she received in her MBA program at UAGC to give back to her community. Raven is passionate about improving the financial literacy of struggling families, and her charitable side doesn’t end there. She also cares for elderly patients, volunteers at food banks, and advocates for mental health awareness. How does she manage to accomplish all this? “If you’re having a hard time, take a short break or ask for help.” Tell us, Wildcats: What have you done with your degree that you’re most proud of?

JENNIFER BATES

QUOTE CAPTION

“I learned that I could overcome any obstacle that came in front of me.”

—Jennifer Bates, Class of 2023

LONG CAPTION

Jennifer Bates had a lot on her plate when she decided to get her degree. She was working full time, raising two kids, and living in England while her husband was deployed. The best time for her to get schoolwork done was over the weekend when her kids were asleep. “I would just work, work, work. I had to, so I could get my work done and get it turned in on time,” she said. Through it all, she learned she could tackle any challenge that came her way, and now, she’s a proud Class of 2023 grad with a B.A. in Applied Behavioral Science. Tell us, Wildcats: What did you learn about yourself while you were in school?

KENNETH JONES

QUOTE CAPTION

“The degree helps me stand out from other candidates for promotions.”

—Kenneth Jones, Class of 2023

LONG CAPTION

Wildcats, meet Kenneth Jones! Kenneth is an anime and sports fan who graduated in 2023 with a Master of Human Resources Management. Currently working as a Claims Team Manager for State Farm, he learned how to be a better leader in his master’s program. His top three tips for success in school? Time management, communication with professors, and persistence. What advice would you give an incoming student? Comment and let us know!

RACHEL BOISMIER

QUOTE CAPTION

“Out of my family, I’m the first one to get a degree.”

—Rachel Boismier, Class of 2023

LONG CAPTION

Wildcats, meet Rachel Boismier, a Class of 2023 grad with a B.A. in Business Administration! Rachel is a Navy veteran and single mom who went back to school to inspire her son. How did she balance raising a kid with going to school? “I was able to plan ahead of time with time management, keeping my son on a schedule.” When she completed her program, she told her parents they could just do the online commencement ceremony, but her mom wanted to see the first college graduate in their family walk across the stage. “She said, ‘You earned this. We’re going,’ ” Rachel said. Who was the first person in your family to get a college degree? Let us know in the comments!

WAYNE PEREZ

QUOTE CAPTION

“UAGC prepared me to become a better individual and father as well.”

—Wayne Perez, Class of 2023

LONG CAPTION

Wildcats, let’s congratulate Class of 2023 grad Wayne Perez for earning his M.A. in Organizational Management! Wayne is a father of six, full-time worker in the automotive industry, and clearly a time-management expert! He credits his degree program with giving him leadership skills at work – and also in his personal life. By going back to school, he was able to set a good example for his kids: “The more they know, the better they can be in their lives to come as they get older.” What was the most valuable life lesson you received while you were in school?

BENJAMIN BURNS

QUOTE CAPTION

“UAGC was set up to help us all succeed.”

—Benjamin Burns, Class of 2023

LONG CAPTION

Wildcats, say hello to Class of 2023 grad Benjamin Burns! Benjamin is a father of three who earned his MBA after 20 years away from school. Before UAGC, he never had any experience with online learning. How did he get adjusted? “UAGC’s online design is user-friendly and is set up to allow anyone to be successful in the program. The content is all digital and accessible anywhere I had connectivity, which was nice while traveling.” Benjamin recommends using the audiobook feature for required readings so you can get schoolwork done while you drive. Let us know in the comments, Wildcats: What was your favorite life hack while you were in school?

NEKE OGUNMEFUN

QUOTE CAPTION

“I returned to school because of my passion for learning new things.”

—Neke Ogunmefun, Class of 2023

LONG CAPTION

Hey, Wildcats, meet Neke Ogunmefun! Neke joined the U.S. Army in 1999 and has 23 years of military experience. Now, she's a Class of 2023 grad with a B.A. in Organizational Management! She recently got to attend commencement with her husband. "Having him there with me for such a monumental event felt great. It was very surreal, to be honest." With her new degree, she's hoping to inspire her kids and be a leader in her workplace. What were your reasons for going back to school? Share your story in the comments!

LAUNDRAE EASTER

QUOTE CAPTION

"I'm walking across that stage as a first-generation graduate."

—Laundrae Easter, Class of 2023

Say hello to Laundrae Easter, Wildcats! Laundrae is a Class of 2023 grad with a B.A. in Human Resources Management. He's also a Veteran with 22 years of military experience. Military life came more naturally to Laundrae than student life, but after a few different attempts at higher education, he finally found a program that worked for him at UAGC. "The classes are five weeks, so it's not drawn out. And the services that they provide are outstanding." Now he's the first person in his family to graduate college, and he knows his mom is especially proud. Tell us, Wildcats: Did you try any other programs before joining the UAGC community? Share your story in the comments!

VANESSA ORTIZ

QUOTE CAPTION

"I decided to go back to school to motivate my children."

— Vanessa Ortiz, Class of 2023

LONG CAPTION

Hey, Wildcats! Say hello to Vanessa Ortiz, Class of 2023 grad who earned a B.A. in Psychology. Vanessa is a full-time single parent who helped her kids with homework and sports while earning her degree. What was the key to her success? Time management! Once she created a daily schedule, she was able to persevere to graduation day, and now she's the first person in her family to earn a degree. "My children haven't stopped talking about it! And it means that I get to set a good example for my siblings who are younger." Was there anyone in particular you earned your degree for? Share your story in the comments!
