School Description:
These Hands School of Massage (formerly Health Touch School of Massage LLC) mission is educating students in the art & science of massage therapy. Our focus is supporting individuals in becoming the highest quality, results producing, ethical massage therapists in the business.

Students will learn client safety & compassion while applying the highest standards of ethical practice & excellence within their work. The school provides one specialty integrated curriculum with content encompassing all 9 state required classes. Coursework includes massage technique, business, ethics, kinesiology, treatment modalities, anatomy, physiology, pathology & jurisprudence while developing career skills & applying professional ethics in practice.

Goal: THSoM is the prestigious, premier massage school in central Wisconsin & surrounding communities.

Our Graduates: Are skilled, career prepared professionals, becoming therapeutic healthcare providers in the field of massage therapy.
